

M'GOVERN TAKES OATH ON MONDAY

AND JAMES O. DAVIDSON BE-COMES EX-GOVERNOR.

CEREMONIES OF THE DAY

At Madison Begin At 10 a. m. And Culminate in Big Reception
And Ball in Evening.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Madison, Wis., Dec. 31.—With final arrangements for the inauguration of Wisconsin's new State officers completed, today and the time but two days in advance, the Capitol is a mecca for both those of the outgoing and incoming squads.

Promptly at ten o'clock Monday morning, January 2, the inauguration day program will begin with a band and detachment of state militia will meet Gov.-Elect Francis J. McGovern and a party of Milwaukee friends at the railway station and escort them to the State Capitol.

The outgoing and incoming State officers will gather in the governor's parlor and at high noon will proceed to the assembly chamber where Chief Justice J. B. Winslow of the Supreme Court will administer the oath of office. Acceptances will be held in the different parts of the Capitol during the afternoon, followed by a grand reception and ball will be held in the large gymnasium at the State university.

The following is the general status which will be brought about by the coming inaugural exercises:

Gov.-Elect Francis McGovern of Milwaukee, who made a record as great prosecutor while serving terms as district attorney of Milwaukee county, will succeed Gov. James O.
Davidson of Soldiers' Grove, who has held the gubernatorial office for five years.

Lieutenant Governor-Elect Morris
of La Crosse will succeed Lieut. Gov.
John Stronach of Neenah. Secretary of State James A. Fear of Hudson, and State Treasurer A. H. Dahl of Westby will continue in office, beginning their third term. Judge Bencroft will relieve Attorney-General E. L. Gilbert as chief law officer of the State, and Deputy State Insurance Commissioner Norman L. Skorn of Whitehall will take the place of his chief, Commissioner George E.
Beckle of Lumberton.

Gov. Davidson and Attorney-General
Gilbert, both former ardent supporters of Senator La Follette, are not now regarded as progressive republicans by the "progressives" in close touch with the senator. Judge Bencroft does not conceal his hostility to La Follette whom he once placed in nomination for governor, but stoutly declares that he favors most of the progressive and republican legislation proposed.

The new State officers will see service for two years.

PRESIDENT WILL RECEIVE MONDAY

Members of Cabinet and Diplomatic Corps, And Supreme Court Justices Will Be First in Line.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Washington, D. C., Dec. 31.—All arrangements are complete for the President's New Year reception, which will be given at the White House Monday. It will begin at 11 o'clock in the morning and continue until well on in the afternoon. The Vice-President and members of the Cabinet will be the first to extend their greetings to the Executive. They will be followed by the members of the diplomatic corps, the Chief Justice and Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States, the District Judiciary, and former Ambassadors and Ministers from the United States who may be in Washington.

TWO BANKS ROBBED BY UP-TO-DATE YEGS

Who Use Automobile and Make Good Their Escape With Their Plunder.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Waterville, Kas., Dec. 31.—Robbers early this morning blew open the safes in the Citizens and State banks of Waterville taking $5,000 from the Citizens and $2,000 from the State.
The buildings were wrecked. The robbers cut all the phone lines. There were five men in the party and they escaped in an automobile.

Shenandoah, Dec. 31.—A sheriff's party with bloodhounds is pursuing robbers who wrecked the state bank at Griffithwood early today and escaped with $2,300.

DAVID HARLOW MENTIONED AS MEMBER OF COMMISSION

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Madison, Dec. 31.—Friends of David F. Harlow here today advanced the strong opinion that Harlow will be appointed to succeed B. H. Meyer on the state railway commission. No direct reason for the opinion would be given.

ONCE WEALTHY, DIES AS AN ALCOHOLIC PAUPER

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Chicago, Dec. 31.—Samuel Chonogh, once general passenger agent of the Lake Shore & Michigan Central railroad, wealthy and prosperous, died here today in St. Luke's hospital of alcoholism a wreck and penniless.

AVIATOR KILLED BY A FALL FROM HIS MONOPLANE

John B. Moissant Dies As He Seeks to Make Landing, Machine Turning Over.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

New Orleans, La., Dec. 31.—John B.
Moissant, the noted aviator, was fatally injured this morning while trying to make a landing at Harahan, three miles above New Orleans, when his machine turned head down at an altitude of 100 feet, throwing Moissant out head first. The machine was wrecked. Moissant died on a special train enroute to the city from Harahan.

Moissant in his fifty horse-power
Bleriot monoplane with a special thirty-five gallon gasoline tank aboard, left the aviation field in this city at 10:05 a. m., and flew to Harahan where special grounds had been laid out, over which the aviator was to try for the Michelin cup.

Moissant circled the field twice, trying to find a landing place. This was difficult, the field being on the edge of the Mississippi river and swamps on all other sides.

Suddenly, from some cause which may never be known, the monoplane turned head downward and the horrified watchers saw Moissant pitched clear over the machine and fall like a plummet fully a hundred feet, landing on his head.

The machine, with the propellers still working, turned sideways and fell, a complete wreck. Moissant was rushed to a flat car and started for the hospital in this city.

He was still breathing when placed aboard the car, but died before reaching the hospital.

Moissant was born at Manteno, Ill.
He was reared in Chicago. He later turned up in South America, where as an adventurer he led a revolutionary army against Salvador. His army was composed chiefly of Nicaraguan convicts. This was unsuccessful. He later drifted into France and took up air flying. His achievements have since started the world.

YOUNG TURKS' RULE NONE TOO SECURE

Reactionaries Outnumber Progressive Element And Situation Is Very Precarious.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Constantinople, December 31.— Official denials to the contrary notwithstanding, the young Turkish government is in a very precarious situation. The progressive element, of which the young Turks are the head, is so enormously outnumbered by the reactionaries that it feels its only hope is to act with the utmost severity at the first sign of popular discontent anywhere in the country. By this method it has succeeded in holding its own thus far, but it has stirred up such an amount of hostility that it is in danger now of being overwhelmed at any moment.

The outbreak of the administration's enemies in Parliament a few days ago, in connection with the undoubtedly accurate showing they made of the cruelties the troops have practiced in disaffected sections of the country apparently brought matters to a head. There are mutinies of rebellion from every direction at present.

To make matters worse there is serious question concerning the loyalty of War Minister Cakmak Pasha to the young Turkish cause. Cakmak was never a member of the young Turkish group. He was enough of a progressive to oppose Abdul Hamid's misgovernment, and accordingly took command of the troops who marched upon Constantinople at the time of the last reactionary uprising, and the young Turks accepted his services because he was recognized as the ablest general who was willing to serve them.

They were afraid of him from the first, however, and the manner in which he criticized their policies following Abdul Hamid's deposition made them still more so. He was certainly the last man they wanted for war minister, but there was no escape from it. The fault he was continually finding with their military methods was causing them the greatest inconvenience, and he was finally decided to take them into the cabinet as a means of alienating him and perhaps leading him to their own group. Chetkoff saw the trap and was very willing to step into it, but had not so much that there was really no escape for him.

The plan worked well for awhile
but with the growth of popular discontent there are signs that the general is becoming disaffected again and thinking of throwing the young Turks over, inasmuch as he has the solid support of the army, his succession would be fatal to the present regime. It is generally believed that he decides to act at all, he will undertake the establishment of a military dictatorship himself. In such a case he would be the real ruler and the Sultan a mere puppet.

The young Turks would probably make short work of the general if they did not know that to do so would precipitate an immediate army uprising. He is unquestionably, however, in considerable danger of assassination by some fanatical individual member of the Committee of Union and Progress.

EARTHQUAKE FELT OUT IN CALIFORNIA

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

San Francisco, Cal., Dec. 31.—A distinct earth tremor was felt here this morning. It continued several seconds. Other towns north and south report heavy shocks. No damage is reported.

TIME FOR GRABBING PERSIA NOT RIPE

England And Russia Have Evidently Decided That Discretion Is Better Part of Valor.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Tehran, Dec. 31.—The impression
here is that Germany and Turkey, combined, have frightened England and Russia out of dividing Persia between them—just at present, at least.

In northern Persia, Russia has not indeed, relinquished anything that it held. It maintains garrisons where-ever it had them and the Czar's troops continue to interfere in Persian affairs as much as ever. It has stopped the reinforcement of garrisons, however, and several detachments of troops which recently crossed the frontier from the Caucasus, evidently intending to march still farther to the southward, have been recalled.

In the south, England has shown every sign of indecision and anxiety. It has landed marines from its warships in the Persian Gulf and called them aboard again, taken the aggressive in several skirmishes on shore and then backed out of them, and shown no inclination to make good its ultimatum to take possession of the southern roads unless the Persian government put a stop to the disorders which the English themselves were stirring up.

It is no doubt natural that England should be more cautious than Russia.
The latter is able to get into Northern Persia by land marches, while the English would have to bring their forces long distances by water.

No one imagines that the London and St. Petersburg governments have finally abandoned their designs against the Shah's country, but it looks very much as if they had reconsidered their decision that the time was ripe for an immediate grab. In some respects, Turkish aggression seems a more urgent danger. The Ottoman troops are gradually getting pos-sion of more and more Persian territory in the vicinity of their own frontier. The Turkish movement was understandably extensive in defense of Persia against Russia, but it is strongly doubted here whether it will surround anything that it gets accruely into its hands.

APPOINTMENTS BY GOVERNOR-ELECT

Duncan McGregor of Plattville Named As Private Secretary—Three Other Positions Filled.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Madison, Dec. 31.—Governor-Elect Francis J. McGovern today made public four appointments in the executive offices at Madison. The appointments are:

Private secretary: Duncan Mc-Gregor, Plattville.
Superintendent of public property:
William L. Essman, Milwaukee.
Executive stenographer: Mary Sims, Dodgeville.
Chief attorney: Phillip Lehner, Princeton.

For the position of executive clerk, no appointment is yet made, but it is rumored a Milwaukee newspaper man will be conferred that position.

Watch Meeting: The Good Tem-plar lodge will hold a watch meeting this evening at their lodge rooms beginning at eight o'clock. Refreshments will be served and a program rendered. All members are requested to be present.

FALLING OFF IN THE VERY EARLY TRADING

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

New York, Dec. 31.—There was a marked falling off both in volume of business and in speculative interests at and just after the opening of the stock market. First sales were at good prices.

THREE PRISONERS GRANTED LENIENCY

Life Terms Have Many Years Cut Off From Their Sentences.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Madison, Wis., Dec. 31.—Gov. Davidson today granted the hearts of three prisoners in state penal institutions. He commuted the sentences of Fred Redman, convicted in Jefferson county in 1894 for murder, from life imprisonment to 25 years. Arthur Coppa of Stanley, convicted for life in Clark county for murder in 1901 received a life commutation. George Curley, sentenced by Milwaukee to the City House of Correction for 1 year for burglary was pardoned outright and was freed this afternoon.
Curley was ill and relatives at Des Moines, Iowa, asked to care for him.

SEVERS CONNECTION WITH THE COMMISSION

Chairman Knapp Now Becomes A Circuit Judge After Years Of Membership.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Washington, Dec. 31.—Chairman
Knapp of the Interstate commerce commission, today took his oath as the additional circuit judge of the United States, thus becoming automatically a member of the new commerce court and severing his connection of more than twenty years with the Interstate Commerce Commission.

ODD REUNION IN THE FOREST CITY

Mrs. Otto Bachman, Aged 36, Met
Father and Brother for First Time Yesterday.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Milwaukee, Dec. 31.—Mrs. Otto Bachman of this city met her father and brother for the first time yesterday in Rockford, Ill., according to advice from that city today. The family separated shortly before the birth of the daughter, the father, Herman Frohs, and son going to Rockford.
The mother took an opposite direction and the new-family reunion has just occurred. Mrs. Bachman is thirty-six years old.

GENERAL BOOTH TO HAVE AN OPERATION

Head of the Salvation Army Is to Have Cataract Removed From His Eye.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

London, Dec. 31.—Gen. Booth, who has now permanently lost the sight of his right eye, is shortly to undergo another operation for the removal of a cataract from his left eye. At present, although the still does a little writing by means of touch, he is so nearly blind that he cannot recognize persons standing within a foot of him.
The general himself is anxious to have the coming operation hastened as much as possible but his physicians are determined not to act until they are absolutely certain the proper time has come, the fact that if they fail he will be stone-blind for the rest of his life, coupled with the risk inevitable from an operation upon so old a man, rendering them additionally cautious.

GOVERNOR DUSY MOVING FROM EXECUTIVE CHAMBER

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Madison, Dec. 31.—Gov. Davidson is today busy engaged in moving out of the executive mansion preparatory to its occupancy by Governor-Elect F. C. McGovern.

AGED INDIAN WOMAN WIDOW OF CHIEF IS DEAD

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Calumet, Mich., Dec. 31.—Mrs. Mary Heische, widow of the late Chief Heische of the Chippewa Indians, is dead, age 115 years.

WANTS A PRESERVE IN NORTHERN WOODS

Game Warden Suggests Ten Thousand Acres to Set Aside for the Deer.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Madison, Wis., Dec. 31.—State Game Warden G. W. Rickman, in his annual report to the governor, to which he is giving the finishing touches, will recommend the establishment of a deer preserve in the northern part of the state, to consist of ten thousand acres. He will also favor a law fixing a heavy penalty for the shooting of deer out of season and confining the shooting in season to bucks. His idea contemplates the establishing of the boundary line of the preserve by wire, with plenty of openings for the antlers to pass in and out. He wants the penalty for shooting deer to be severely severe.

The records of the department show that during the season just closed about five thousand deer were shipped, and from three to five thousand more were killed but not shipped.

Strong pressure is being brought to bear upon Governor-Elect McGovern for the reappointment of Rickman.

GOVERNMENT TROOPS SEVERELY DEFEATED

Column Attacked That Goes To the Relief Of General Besieged By Rebels.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Galveston, Texas, Dec. 31.—As a result of four days' skirmishing with the rebels, a government reserve army under General Luque, attempted to reach General Sarrat's old column near Matamoros, and was nearly cut to pieces according to private advices here today from Galveston. Luque's losses exceeded five hundred.

Not Confirmed.

El Paso, Tex., Dec. 31.—No confirmation of any kind was received today of the report last night from Chihuahua, Mexico, that the federal troops had lost six hundred men killed in recent engagements with the insurgents near Case Colorado.

CATHOLIC PRIEST IS RUSHED TO HOSPITAL

Stricken With Appendicitis He Is Taken On Special Train To Hospital.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Fond du Lac, Dec. 31.—Reverend George Mullock, pastor of the Catholic church at Fond du Lac, Wis., was rushed to Fond du Lac at midnight last night to undergo an operation for appendicitis. The priest was stricken at six o'clock in the evening and there being no train out of Red Grant until the morning he was brought here on a special coach and engine, chartered to convey him to this city.
The train travelled sixty miles an hour. Friends of the priest telegraphed and all preparations were made here at St. Agnes Hospital for the operation and he was taken directly to the operating table. He is reported this morning doing nicely.

GLOOM PREVAILS IN CREAM CITY TODAY

Promised Increase in Salaries Of City Employees Is Not To Be Made.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Milwaukee, Dec. 31.—Gloom prevails with every city official and employe with the announcement today that contemplated increases in salaries to have been granted January first, will not be available because of the limited financial condition of the local city treasury. Small increases will be granted ward laborers, but for the remainder of the several hundred employees, the promised $125,000 wage increase fund will not be granted.

ROCKFORD MAN IS EXPECTED TO RECOVER FROM INJURY

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Rockford, Ill., Dec. 31.—S. C. Withrow of Rockford, Ill., who is in a serious condition in the local hospital as a result of being struck by a train at Corlies, Thursday night, may recover, physicians say today.

PROMINENT LA CROSSE MAN DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

La Crosse, Dec. 31.—Following a lingering illness, A. M. Watson, early day chief of the fire department, civil war veteran and retired merchant died here early today, aged 74.

TO ABOLISH GALLOWS THROUGHOUT ENGLAND

Measure Presented To the Coming Parliament Will Seek More Humane Method Of Killing Criminals.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

London, Dec. 31.—A bill will be introduced at the next session of Parliament for the abolition of the gallows and the strictly private dispatch of condemned men in their cells and under the influence of an anesthetic.
The measure has already been drafted and its passage is being agitated by a group under the leadership of A.
C. Benson, the author, and son of the late Bishop of Canterbury.
"I cannot help thinking," Benson explains, "that a condemned man should be able to choose both the time, within fixed limits, and the manner of his death, and that the resources of medical science should be employed to make that death as swift,
as quiet and as painless as possible."
"If a prisoner in the solitude of his cell might be allowed to swallow a poison, or be done to death by an anesthetic, death would at least have some touch of privacy and decorum about it. But the awful ceremony and disgusting apparatus of violent death seems to me utterly barbarous and medieval. A man at such a crisis of his fate is not a thing to be dealt with as a brute, and I believe crime may have been, and I believe the modern humanity of the whole proceeding has an entirely degrading and debasing effect on the public mind."

LAWRENCE GRADUATE HANDLES MILLIONS

Thinks Newspapers Will Get the Larger Portion of the Money to Be Used for Advertising Purposes.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Appleton, Wis., Dec. 31.—How most judiciously to spend a million dollars in advertising is the unusual task that has fallen to the lot of Ernest T. Ingold, a graduate of Lawrence college and only a few years ago one of the leading athletes of that institution.
Although Ingold is but 25 years of age and has been out of college only a few years, he is one of the leading business men of the west and the $1,000,000 advertising campaign he has been selected to conduct will be in the interest of one of the biggest realty and investment companies in the country.

As far as is known, Ingold is the youngest corporation publicity manager in the country. He has been engaged in publicity work on the western coast only about a year, but has made his name well known throughout Oregon, Washington and California.
The campaign he is about to start in the near future in which he expects to spend $1,000,000 will include practically every known advertising medium. The scope of the campaign will be nation-wide, one feature of it to be in the nature of a magazine to be printed monthly and mailed broadcast throughout the land. In a letter written to a college friend in Appleton, in which Ingold tells of the giant task
he has undertaken, he has the following to say concerning his opinion of the merits of the various kinds of advertising:

"I anticipate that newspapers will get the bulk of the million as I regard newspaper advertising far and away superior to any other kind aside from personal solicitation. I expect the monthly magazine will take a large portion of the sum allotted me for advertising, but proportionately I do not think I will get the results from that that will accrue from the advertising
I shall do in newspapers. My experience in the advertising world has convinced me that printers' ink, when used in enterprising styles, gets better results than what any other."

Not for him.
"Mamma," said the little boy, "I hate to be a clerk in a shoe store."
"Why so, dear?"
"Cause, when a woman with a hobble skirt came in to buy a pair of shoes, I'd have to take both her feet up in my lap."

ABNER RANDALL IN SERIOUS TROUBLE

Former Local Western Union Messenger Boy Is Charged With Stealing From United States Government.

Young Abner Randall, former messenger boy for the Western Union Telegraph company in this city, who was arrested in Milwaukee recently on the charge of breaking open and stealing money from an envelope that had been delivered to the United States government, will have his trial on Jan. 9. It is set up in the defense that he was a messenger boy for the
A. T. T. company and not in the employ of Uncle Sam and that the letter had not been delivered to the government. The head of the Milwaukee police department telephoned Chief Polley regarding the lad and was told that he had a bad record here, having been under suspicion on numerous occasions of dishonesty in collections and having "jumped" a bond bill of $12.80. Randall lived at Gray's Lake before coming to Janesville and is fifteen years of age.

BELOIT MAN CHARGED WITH SELLING LIQUOR WITHOUT A LICENSE

LeRoy McKinley Was Before Judge Rosa This Morning—Case Adjourned Until Tuesday.

District Attorney J. L. Fisher and Attorney Stanley Dunwiddie went to Beloit this morning to attend to the case of LeRoy McKinley, arrested for selling liquor without a license. On the defendant's promise to refrain from selling during the interval, an adjournment was taken to Tuesday next. The Beloit common council does not permit the transfer of saloon licenses. Mr. McKinley claims that he was simply running the business for the parties to whom the license was granted, while the state contends that there was an actual sale and transfer of property.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Bridget Shields.
Funeral services for Mrs. Bridget Shields will be held Monday morning at nine o'clock from St. Patrick's church.

Mrs. Jeanette Sayre Miller.
Funeral services for Mrs. Jeanette Sayre Miller will be held Monday afternoon at two o'clock from the home of her sister, Mrs. Charles Raymond, at Fulton. Interment will be made in the cemetery at Fulton.

Mrs. Catherine Stockman.
Last rites over the remains of Mrs.
Catherine Stockman were held this morning at half past nine o'clock at St. Mary's church. Rev. Fr. Gochel officiated. Pall bearers were: Charles Perry, W. F. Hughes, John McGlinley and George Trenchard. Interment was in Mt. Olivet cemetery.

Julius Nickel.
Julius Nickel passed away at his home at 721 Western avenue this morning about one o'clock. He had been ill for less than a week and his many friends will be grieved to learn of his sudden demise. The deceased was born in Germany, Oct. 15, 1857, and after coming to this country settled in this city. He has been employed for over twenty-seven years as a section hand on the Northwestern railroad and his cheerful disposition and faithful industry won him a host of friends. Besides a wife he leaves two daughters—Mrs. Frank Gates and Miss Elsie Nickel. The funeral will be held Monday afternoon at half past one from the home and at two o'clock from St. Paul's German Lutheran church. Rev. C. J. Koerner will officiate and interment will be in Oak Hill cemetery.

PLEASANT SURPRISE AT BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

Mrs. Flora Dixon of Broadhead is Un-

Friends Last Evening.
(JANESVILLE DAILY GAZETTE.)
Broadhead, Dec. 31.—Mrs. Flora Dixon was given a complete surprise last evening when a number of lady and gentleman friends came in and spent the evening, bringing with them delicious refreshments. The evening was happily spent with music, games, and social conversation and Mrs. Dixon was made the recipient of a beautiful solid silver souvenir teaspoon. The occasion was her birthday anniversary.

A MOUNTAIN of SAND

A few years ago the big sand hill on South Main St., opposite the Buob Brewing Company, was not considered to be of a great deal of value. Today that same mound of sand and gravel is said to be of the highest grade to be found anywhere in this part of the country. It is one of the largest in height of any about here and that it is considered of excellent quality and of unusual interest is shown by the fact that the public schools of Milwaukee use photographs of this hill in illustrating to the city schools geology and sand.

The United States Geographical Survey has taken samples of this material and an acid test finds it free from lime with a very high percentage of silica, something over 50 per cent, which is a very necessary qualification for building purposes.

This sand has a very large reputation for cement work. It is absolutely clean and free from all foreign substances. The particles are very clear and sharp and any building enterprise of any size carried on in this part of the country use the Janesville sand in their cement work.

During the past year over 30,000 cubic yards of sand have been marketed and shipments have been made as far away as Hammond, Ind., and to the cities of Waupun, La Crosse, Platteville and great quantities have been sent to Milwaukee. The nearby cities and towns are calling upon this wonderful supply continually.

One interesting feature about the handling of the sand from these banks is that it is so clean and free as to make it possible to load directly from the bank to the cars without the necessity of a great deal of sifting.

Usually a very large plant for washing gravel is necessary to produce the clean sand.

The sand bank consists of some ten acres and is the property of Mrs. Carrie L. Roberts and Grant U. Fisher, operating under the name of the Roberts & Fisher Sand Co.

Samples of the material and information regarding the product will be furnished to any person interested, upon address-

The Church—Its Danger and Security

By REV. W. G. CURRY

TEXT—Awake, awake, put on thy strength; O Zion—Isaiah LII, 1.

Jehovah spoke this when Judaism had fallen into great weakness. Enemies beset, on every side. The church has often had its times of moral weakness. Deliverance always came. The slumbering giant not only awoke but exerted himself. A deep slumber, provoked when Christ came. Great systems of idolatry prevailed. The true God was high forgotten. The Saviour gathered a little band around him and sent them forth. With matchless strength they attacked the powers and Satan's kingdom was shaken. Another crisis came—papal corruption. Pure Christianity slept beneath gaudy trappings of Catholicism. Movements for freedom were watched, and dungeons were filled with those who dared look up. "Awake awake!" was sounded. Martin Luther arose to restore spirituality. Since then the truth has been gaining power. When we consider the facilities we have, the outlook is now hopeful.

There is another side.

1. The church is threatened with danger.

1. Danger from peculiar activity and exaltability of the times in which we live—entirely an earnest age. Now discoveries, now forces appearing. Law of change is everywhere. Wonderful sciences claim public attention. Science, art are ever presenting new questions. Our minds and hands are full; never was there more activity. It is not an unfortunate condition. We would not look the wheels of progress, and command the age back to the darkness of the past. In the midst of the excitement we are in danger of infection, unless there be a corresponding earnestness in Christian character. Our danger is inability to control these forces. We are too much controlled by them. We are being permeated by the spirit of the world, instead of permeating it with our spirit. We must show a religion full of life and energy—not a cold, sleepy religion.

2. The tendency to innovation. We believe all essentials are clearly revealed in the Scriptures. Yet we think more light and improved methods may be employed. But from many comes a spirit that would way our foundations. It has found its way into our theological schools, and is poisoning the minds of the rising ministry. They tell us that reason and not faith must be the guide. They have discovered the Bible is an antiquated book, and the gospel too cold. They would take away the Bible as a perfect rule of faith and practice. The danger lies in having our minds alienated from the simplicity of the gospel, and a desire to seek the novelties. We need now more than ever before to cry for the old paths.

3. In danger from the increasing boldness and energy of the enemies of Christianity. We are no longer attacked by a few, but the ranks are strong and the infidelity declares its truths to be the only truths. It has never displayed so much determination. It is widespread and is with men in daily walks; is in politics, in legislation, and has taken hold upon the public press. The world is flooded with its literature. Vast multitudes listen to infidelity's modern apostle.

In the light of all these facts have we not cause for alarm? Are we in a condition to successfully contend with these forces? The church is not putting forth her strength. She has had smooth sailing a long time and sleeps.

II. What are the elements of strength.

1. Sound doctrine. In these days of laxness and inelasticity we need to contend earnestly for the faith once delivered to the saints. The doctrines of depravity, of sin and salvation by grace must be emphasized. Let this be done, and infidelity will not affect the religion of personal experience.

2. Spiritual life. We need a high-toned spirituality, a religion that enters into all our social and business relations, giving color and shape to the daily life.

How shall this strength, which God calls on us to exert, be put on? It is not physical, but spiritual strength that we need. It must be put on upon our knees.

His Saving Power.

Jesus said: "All power is given unto Me in heaven and in earth; go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen."

He displayed His wonderful power while here upon earth. His miracles were a definite attestation to His mission. He claims and exercises that saving, helping power—a power not now limited by physical conditions, as might have been charged in His earthly life, but a power which flows with authority from the mediatorial throne on which He reigns.

The Wise Man.

The wise man is never satisfied that he knows, but the foolish knows that he is satisfied.—Prideaux.

DECREASE IN BUSINESS DONE BY THE RAILROADS

Freight Traffic Said To Be Dropping Off Following Usual Rush of Fall Business.

The freight traffic on both railroads running into this city, it is said, is beginning to show a decrease and the effects of this is felt in the lessened number of trains sent out from here. On the St. Paul road five switch engines are doing the work where six were formerly required; and on the Northwestern road it has been found necessary to pull off one of the switching crews. At this season of the year following the annual rush, the trade shippers and shippers are fewer. Further dullness in freight movements the first part of the year may be expected also, judging from past years.

MANY STRAW HATS FOR WEARERS IN ST. PAUL

Merchants of Minnesota Capitol Evidently Expect Extremely Warm Weather Next Summer.

Merchants of St. Paul, Minn., evidently anticipate a spell of very hot weather next summer and a large sale of the straw sunshades which are popular during the hot months. In a train which passed through this city at one o'clock this afternoon was included a shipment of twenty-two carloads of the headgear with urgent orders to rush the shipment.

The interior woodwork of the roundhouse has been repainted and the walls have been whitewashed.

Boilermaker A. J. Clark and Eddie Barabach have returned from a trip of inspection of the stationary boilers at Harvard, Hedgesfield, Bassetts, Ill., Clinton Junction and at the Janesville depot.

A new stationary boiler has been installed at Harvard for heating the shops and furnishing power.

Engineer Mills and Fireman Olson resumed work today on 530 and 541. Engineer Lamphere and Fireman Dorsey relieved them.

ENGINEMEN WILL GATHER FOR SOCIAL GOOD TIME

Local Division Of Brotherhood To Give Entertainment In East Side I. O. O. F. Hall Tomorrow.

Members of Janesville Division No. 710, Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers will hold a social and entertainment in East Side Odd Fellows Hall tomorrow evening, commencing at 5:30 o'clock to which all engineers and their families have been invited. The committee in charge has gone to especial pains to make the occasion an enjoyable one and a large number of the engineers are expected. Guests will be present from Madison and from Ladd, Ill.

Potatoes Better Than Gold. Carlyle once told a man who was financially interested in gold mining that all the gold ever produced in California was not worth one good meal potato. And yet the potato in Scotland has a history of less than two hundred years. When Macdonald of Clunrauld, in 1743, bought seed potatoes for his tenants in South Ulster they objected to planting them because the potato is not mentioned in the Bible.

Interested. "I told him you had lost your head about him." "Did he seem interested?" "He seemed even excited." "The dear man! What did you say?" "He asked if you had lost your face, too."

You Have Had GOOD COAL and BAD COAL

We Wish You A

Happy New Year

Did you ever notice that the GOOD coal was bright and fresh? When coal is dirty and lifeless looking, it's a sign of dirt, dust, screenings and dead matter or slate. It doesn't burn to a fine ash and without clinkers like SCRANTON COAL.

SCRANTON is pure coal. It's bright and clean always. You can be sure of getting "Scranton" Coal if you buy of us—we sell no other hard coal—and another thing, you will positively be assured of Quick Deliveries and Full Weight.

life is experience, and the year just closing will not have been lived in vain, if the experiences of the year have been turned to profit.

The volume is closed, but memories linger. Some are pleasant and some are disagreeable, but all are history indelibly recorded, which can never be effaced or changed.

The story is told of the late President Cassatt of the Pennsylvania road, the man who planned and executed the $100,000,000 terminal station in New York and Brooklyn, one of the most gigantic pieces of engineering ever accomplished.

Mr. Cassatt was going home one night, on a local, when the train was halted at a flag station. Stepping back to the rear platform he found the brakeman sitting on the car steps, and said to him, "Isn't it customary for you to go back with a flag while the train waits?"

"That's none of your damn'd business," said the surly reply. "I wouldn't not," said Mr. Cassatt, as he stepped back into the car.

The case was reported and the boy slated for immediate discharge, but the president said: "No, don't dismiss him; he probably needs the job. Just say to him that he cursed the president of the road and ask him to be more polite to passengers."

That was all, but the boy had been taught a lesson by experience, which he will never forget.

It is said of the late "Bill Nye" that he entered the Hoffman House in New York, late one night, and called for a room. He was just in from a long trip, had on a slouch hat, a long linen duster, and looked seedy.

The night clerk sized him up and said: "We have nothing left but a small room on the seventh floor." "All right," said Nye, "send me up."

"Three dollars please," said the clerk. "Our terms are cash in advance." Nye reached down in his pocket, drew out a handful of bills, threw them on the counter and said: "Take out what you want."

Then the clerk began to sit up and take notice. Glancing at the register he said, "Excuse me Mr. Nye, I think we have a room on the third floor." "All right," said his guest, "anywhere you say." Then as he turned to go upstairs he said to the man behind the counter: "My friend, you remind me of Clay." The clerk was honored and said that he felt flattered if he resembled Henry Clay.

"Oh, no," said Nye, "not Henry Clay; just ordinary clay—common mud. I wish you good night."

The young man had been taught a lesson in the hard school of experience, but it made him a better clerk.

We enter the new year tomorrow, fresh from the experiences of the year just closed. The weakness which handicaps many of us is, that we refuse to profit by these experiences, but through the force of habit continue practices which undermine health and moral character.

Observation, which next to experience, is the best schoolmaster in the great university of life, fails, too often, to make any impression on our stubborn minds.

Derelicts line the roadside, victims of their own undoing. Some of them are physical and many of them moral wrecks. They are object lessons which fail to impress us.

Other people grow old, but we never will. Other people abuse the laws of health and suffer in consequence, but we have an iron constitution that will stand every strain without complaint. Others have fallen through the power of temptation, but we are stronger, and so all down the long list, observation fails to impress us.

It is well to commence the new year right, and as its pages unfold, write into its daily history a record of achievement. This is possible to every life. It's a good old world after all, and people get out of it all they put into it, and more as a rule. The following is Walt Mason's opinion, and he is good authority.

"Oh, life is a wonder and death is a blunder! It's good to be living and strong! It's fine to be chaffing and joking and laughing, and chortling a trade-a song! It's great to be working like lightning and jerking your living from out of the soil! It's gay to be earning real money and spinning the thought of a life without toil. Most all the repining and grunting and whining is done by the loafers, you'll note; the toilers and tillers, old industry's pillars, no time to complaining devote; they skimpish and rustic, they hump and they hustle, and put up their hay in the sun; they mow and they garner and don't give a darn or a whoop for the indolent one. Such fellows are useful; they're worth a caboose full of men who have nothing to do but grunt all together concerning the weather, the crops, and the government, too. I tell you, dear chappy, if you would be happy, you'll have to get busy and work; there isn't much pleasure for people of leisure, there isn't much use for a shirk. The man who is busy drives busy men crazy, and over the transom he's hurled; but things keep a-comin' to folks who are hustling, and this is a bully old world."

RETIRING OFFICIALS.

On Monday next, January 2nd, there will be a change in the official life of Rock county. Sheriff Rhody Scheibel retires from office after having served one term, to be succeeded by Emeline Ransom. Mr. Scheibel has made a most efficient officer and he is succeeded by a man that the people of the county have much faith in.

Tuesday also sees the retirement of John L. Fisher as district attorney. Mr. Fisher was named five years ago by Governor Davidson to succeed W. O. Newhouse, who resigned in the middle of his term. He has twice been re-elected to the office, which speaks well for his ability as a prosecuting attorney. His successor, Stanley G. Danwidde, was nominated and elected with a handsome endorsement.

Register of Deeds Charles Weirick retires from office to enter business after many years of service in this most exacting office which he has filled most acceptably. His successor is Frank Smiley, a man whose capability for the office has been demonstrated in other positions of trust that he has held.

County Clerk Lee, Clerk of the Circuit Court Jesse Earle and County Treasurer A. M. Church retain their offices, having been re-elected without opposition. The Gazette takes occasion not only to compliment the retiring officers for their efficient work while in office, but to congratulate the residents of the county on their selection of new officials to take their places.

It's more than likely my mistakes

I might be haughty to the poor, and

INFANT'S TRAVELING COT

Can Be Hung Over Back of Car Seat in Railroad Train.

The problem of what to do with baby on a long railroad ride has been solved by a California man. He has devised a collapsible cot, which can be hung on the back of the seat in front, and in which the child can sleep in peace and comfort—for himself, his parents and the other passengers. This cot or berth consists of a bottom to support a few mattresses and hinged sides, which fold down upon it when not in use and open up for support when the cot is in use. Around the whole affair goes a metal hanger frame, from which arise two padded books, which look over the back of the seat ahead and support the little berth without in any way interfering with the occupants of the forward seat. As this article takes up little room when folded, it will be found a blessing by mothers who have to take infants on long trips, as it can be adjusted in a few moments, and the little one allowed to take his rest without encumbering his parent.

FOLDS UP WHEN NOT IN USE.

As to Voices.

"The trouble with most of our statesmen is that they are unable to hear the voice of the people."

"No, you're wrong. They can hear the voice of the people, all right, but the voices of the party bosses are more positive."

Keep This In Mind.

It must not be forgotten that the man who takes advantage of others will take advantage of you if he over finds it conveniently profitable to do so, no matter how consistently he may pretend to be your friend.

Free Women

THE HOOSIER SPECIAL

Free women are those who bring to their command household conveniences that are on a par with their husbands' business conveniences. These women have quit being slaves to their kitchens. They preserve their health and their families' good nature. They are progressive women.

The half million who use Hoosier Kitchen Cabinets today belong to this class. They are intelligent, alert, active, free to do better things because the Hoosier Kitchen Cabinet brings them hours of extra time, and saves them thousands of extra steps.

There are hundreds of these women right here in Janesville—you know them. They are neighbors and friends you admire.

You, too, can have this extra leisure for yourself at small cost. Hoosier Cabinets $17.50 to $25.00.

R. H. VAN CLEVE TO GO TO CALIFORNIA

Gives Up Newspaper Work to Enter the Field of Business—Leaves With Best Wishes of Friends.

The many friends of Ralph H. Van Cleve will regret to learn of his departure from Janesville. Mr. Van Cleve has been on the editorial staff of the Gazette for the past seven years and his work, as well as his genial personality, has won for him a host of friends. He retired from the newspaper fold to enter business for himself, having formed a partnership with his brother John Van Cleve, for the manufacture of cement pipe, near Exeter, in the San Joaquin Valley, California. Mr. Van Cleve is a finished writer, and many of his stories possess a vein of quaint humor which make them attractive. As a theatrical critic he excelled. The cement pipe business may be a source of fortune, but it will be a finished product under Mr. Van Cleve's management, and his many friends in Janesville will wish him all sorts of success in his California venture. The vacancy on the Gazette staff will be filled by Dwight Brewer, a graduate of the university, and now with the Stevens Point Journal.

THIRTY THOUSAND WAS NUMBER SOLD

Miss Louise Merrill Reports That in Exact Figures 30,281 Christmas Seals Were Disposed Of.

Janesville's offering to the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis society for the sale of Christmas seals was $302.81. These are the figures given out by Miss Louise Merrill this afternoon, as a grand total for the campaign waged in the city during the month preceding Christmas. Miss Merrill had charge of the work and under her direction a Seal Day sale was held and the stamps were disposed of in the schools and various places of business. Last year the sum total was $239.75, showing an increase of nearly a hundred dollars for nineteen ten.

MAKING PLANS FOR MEETING OF THE TEACHERS IN LIM

One Of Series Of Meetings For Grade Instructors Will Take Place On January 13 and 14.

Plans are now making for a meeting of local teachers in Lima, this county, on the evening of Friday, January 13, and the following day. County Superintendent of Schools O. D. Antisdel is in charge of the arrangements of the session, which is one of the series planned for the winter, and will be assisted on Friday evening at the gathering by Prof. Upman of Whitewater. Local teachers will participate in the day's assembly on Saturday. Preliminary arrangements are under way for the annual convention of the Southern Wisconsin Teachers Association, to be held in Delavan February 17 and 18. Mr. Antisdel is first vice-president of the association.

CALORIC SALESMEN HAD CALORIC MEAL

Novel Banquet Served At the Grand Hotel Last Evening—Everything Cooked By Fireless Cooker.

One of the most novel banquets ever held in Janesville took place last evening at the Grand Hotel when the salesmen of the Caloric Company sat down to an elaborate repast in the private dining room, every dish for which was cooked in a Caloric fireless cook stove. A dainty menu card, designed by M. M. Baker, the advertising manager of the company, had a view of the Rock river with an appropriate verse beneath it and the repast that was enjoyed "a la Caloric." Aside from the oysters, grape fruit, olives and celery and cheese everything had been prepared in a fireless cookstove, by Mrs. Nicholson, who frequently demonstrates for the company. Cream of tomato soup with dinner rolls, mince pie of beef at 10c, sprouts, hot potatoes, sliced peas, asparagus, mushrooms, fruit shortbread, cut bread, hot mince pie, roasted wafers and dumplings all came forth in their most delicious form. Among those who were present were J. J. Bates, George H. Watkins, J. M. Johnson, P. H. Whitmont, J. P. Hammerlund, W. F. Frye, D. Morris, Henry Russell, M. M. Baker, George A. Rogers and W. D. Hanson. These gentlemen have been holding a salesmen's convention here for the past week, receiving instructions for the selling campaign of nineteen hundred and eleven. The dining room had been most tastefully decorated for the occasion and if the proof of the pudding is in the eating the sale of the Caloric will be advanced now that the sales agents have had such a delicious demonstration of the capabilities of the wonderful invention they are selling.

Dog That Wandered Into the Shops Has Been Adopted By Day and Night Forces.

A mascot has been selected by the men at the roundhouse. A "bomber" dog, home and previous condition of servitude unknown, thinking to find congenial company among the employees there, adopted the place as his new home and has been taken in by both the day and night forces. He first made his appearance yesterday, but did not bring his pedigree along, as it was too bulky to carry. That, however, is a matter of trifling importance and it is necessary requires that will probably be furnished him. The wanderer was given a joyous welcome, the principal feature of which was furnishing him with a new robe. The color rivalled that of any of the hues of Benjamin's coat in brightness, but offended the eyes of the night force, who removed most of the paint by washing the new addition to the crew. A slight fracture of the abdomen remained and this morning "doggie" had a sort of sunburned complexion.

RACING ON ICE ATTRACTS THE ATTENTION OF HORSEMEN

Two Days Sport Promised On Sunday and Monday Next At Two Thirty In the Afternoon.

There will be two days of racing on the Gas House Pond on Sunday and Monday. Those in charge of the races have had the track scraped and placed in fine shape and some good sport is promised. The races will start at two thirty and some of the best horses in the city will take part.

A NEW FIRM.

Beginning with the new year the old established business of Fleck's Jewelry Store will be known and advertised as G. W. Grant & Co. This does not mean a new firm altogether, but that G. W. Grant has purchased an interest in the store and will be the active manager of same. Through his 20 years of experience, mostly in the large stores of Chicago, the people can be assured that the store and stock will be kept right up-to-date, with carefully selected goods of the guaranteed and dependable quality, always at moderate prices.

As to watch work, jewelry repairing and engraving, our large experience will promise absolute satisfaction.

The optical department will be fitted up in the very best manner, second to none, and with the most modern and thorough system of testing the eyes. Special attention will be given to the complex and difficult cases, assuring correctness and satisfaction to all.

Thanking the many friends of the store for their patronage in the past, your liberal support is earnestly solicited in the future.

Wishing everyone a Happy and Prosperous New Year,

Sincerely yours,

A THOROUGHLY UP-TO-DATE DRUG STORE

Reliable Drug Co. Conducts One of the Most Successful Pharmacies in the City. On the Metropolitan Plan.

One is instantly impressed with a sense of prosperity and success that seems to permeate the interior of this store. Everything is modern and up-to-date in every respect, far more so than is usually found in drug stores in cities of the size of Janesville. Plate glass mirrors, wall and display cases in plate glass and mahogany, with richly decorated electric light fixtures, a resplendent showing. With all it is a place where one likes to come back to again.

The business has prospered greatly during the past year, due no doubt to the excellent store service and quality of all goods carried in stock. A delivery service has been instituted so that if you are unable to get down town a telephone message will bring you what you want.

Heartily wishes to all Janesville for a Happy and Prosperous New Year are extended by the management.

Casualties on British Roads.

The report of the British board of trade on railway accidents in the United Kingdom during the year 1909, shows that only one passenger was killed in an accident to the train in which he was travelling, and that this was the first fatality for twenty preceding months. The number of passengers injured while traveling was 330, which is the lowest average for several years past. As 1,264,000, 000 passengers were carried during 1909, the death record is certainly remarkably small. By accidents to passengers from other causes—falling between trains and platforms, etc.—directly traceable to personal carelessness and disobedience of orders, 82 persons were killed and 2,148 were injured.—Scientific American.

Hats Bother Railroads.

Women's big hats are giving much concern to railroads in France. The companies wish to raise the tariff for shipping them, and they applied to the minister of public works for permission to do so. The public official is in a quandary because he approves the mobility of fashions. If he makes a rule, it must stand for a year, whereas, he says, the fashions in hats may change over night. The trouble is that a few dozen hat boxes are of considerable weight, but they leave no room in a car for anything else. Their fragility makes them a further inconvenience, and now the railroads complain that they are losing money in shipping hat boxes.

Where the Sauce Comes From.

To see to the best advantage the probabilities of cranberry sauce will visit Cape Cod, that elongated bit of land whereby the state of Massachusetts extends a crooked and beckoning finger into the Atlantic. Here within a radius of an hour's ride of historic old Plymouth, where the Pilgrims landed, is the greatest of all cranberry districts. This whole countryside would not be considered to make more than a single good-sized county in some of our western states, and yet in a season when it is blessed with a good crop this cranberry zone will ship more than a third of a million barrels of the fruit.

Rejects Aluminum Coinage.

After many months of discussion and experimenting the French government has decided not to adopt aluminum coinage. This is on the recommendation of the commission of scientists whom the government appointed to consider the subject. A certain number of aluminum coins were made as a test, but the lightness of the white metal, which was one of its chief recommendations, was condemned.

DAUGHTER OF CLINTON PASTOR MARRIED TODAY

Miss Rachel Collings Became the Bride of W. H. Weber of Acme, Canada, This Afternoon.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Clinton, Dec. 31.—At the Methodist parsonage this afternoon at 3 p. m., occurred the wedding of Miss Rachel Collings, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. John A. Collings, and W. H. Weber of Acme, Canada. The bride's father officiated. The good wishes of the entire community go with the young couple to their new home in Canada.

Personal.

Miss Martha Finster returned yesterday from Hurley, Wis., where she has been nursing her sister-in-law, who has been very sick, but whom Miss Finster reports as convalescent.

Mrs. Maud Goodell of Dixon, Ill., who came here to spend Christmas with her mother, was taken sick with la grippe and is confined to her bed.

Mr. and Mrs. George Amos expect to move to their Colorado ranch in the early summer.

Postmaster Holmer announced to the lock box renters that the department has reduced the rent of boxes from 40 cents a quarter to 35 cents, which is a long-deferred proper thing to do.

An interesting surprise is promised the Congregational Sunday school next Sunday by the officers. Every member should be present to see what it will be and enjoy the treat.

The G. A. R. installation of officers will be held at Drake's hall on January 6.

Miss Elizabeth Bennett left yesterday for New Orleans, La., to resume her position.

Hon. and Mrs. S. S. Jones went to Hollet Thursday in his automobile, returning yesterday evening by train. Hollet street hill is a great joy to the youngsters these days. It is fairly black with young Americans every day.

WOMEN PUT UP BILLS

New York Suffragettes Plaster Center of City.Militant Winter Campaign Indicated by the Display of Paper on Poles and Barrels.

New York, Dec. 31.—The central part of New York city is brilliant with many-colored posters urging votes for women, which gaudily decorate telegraph poles, "L" stations, fences and other available spots along a dozen streets. All this is the result of a "poster-pasting bee" which the members of the Woman's Political Union held during the night.

They started from their headquarters in small squads, each squad with a roll of posters and a paste bucket. Dividing, they covered the city from east to west from Twenty-Sixth to Fifty-Fourth streets. Wherever there was a building in course of construction, barrels standing around or a vacant space which did not have a "Post No Bills" warning, they put up their posters.

The bill-posting bee is credited with being the opening gun of a "militant" winter campaign.

New York, Dec. 31.—Lyman J. Gage, secretary of the treasury from 1907 to 1909, who during the last five years has lived in southern California, has arrived in New York. Said he of the business outlook:

"Conditions ought to be good for general industry and trade. It is reported that we have gathered $8,500,000 worth of new products from the soil, the forests and the mines during 1910. They afford an enormous foundation for manufacture and trade and it is hard to see how we can fail to have good conditions in respect to these."

A BLIGHT

By ELIZABETH WEED

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

Edith Wilton combined two marked contradictions. She possessed a lovable disposition, but when she was a baby, through the carelessness of a nurse, she fell and cut her lip, producing a wound that in healing left a scar, giving a very disagreeable expression to her face.

Edith could see in the faces of those who met a repugnance occasioned by her expression. At first she tried to obviate this effect by smiling, but who saw at once by the further recoil of the one looking at her that she was only heightening the disagreeable impression. Such physical blights usually have one of two effects, either the blighted person is unconscious of the defect or becomes painfully sensitive concerning it. Edith was of the latter class. She would not go to the social gatherings of her own age. More and more she shrank within herself. Then, becoming conscious that in being a recluse she would be forced into a life of selfishness, she began to devote herself to the poor.

She had friends, girl friends, who sought to draw her out socially. Confidence between young girls is close, while that between opposite sexes, especially at that age, is distant. The young men who met Edith looked upon the expression on her face and turned away with a shrug. Her girl friends had a better opportunity to learn what there was in the misleading expression. When one of her chums was married she insisted on Edith being her bridesmaid. Edith demurred, but her friend would not excuse her.

At the wedding the bridesmaid, looking up suddenly, saw the eyes of a young man who had never seen riveted upon her and without that repelled expression she was accustomed to see. The man was a recent graduate of a medical school. The reason why his face did not reflect any disagreeable expression at her defect was because, being a practitioner, he was used to controlling his features when treating his patients.

But Edith did not know this. She knew only that a man with a kindly face was looking at her without any reference to her defect. And when Dr. Allan Emerson requested an introduction and was presented to her her heart fairly bounded within her. Not for an instant while he chatted with her did he seem conscious of her blight. And she, being made to feel that it was inconsequential, rose above it so far as to display the real attractiveness and worth that were in her. And yet the reason of the young doctor's desire to make her acquaintance was that very defect. He had been observing her before she had noticed him and with a professional eye had been watching the effect of her scar upon the various expressions that flitted across her face. Some physicians, rough in manner, though they may be invaluable helpers to the afflicted, would not have scrupled to betray the real object of their interest. Emerson was of a different kind. He not only concealed his own thoughts for professional reasons, but from an innate sense of delicacy.

Whatever be the exact analysis of his feelings, the act produced a marked impression upon Edith Wilton. A man whose personal, whose bearing, was far above the average had not only failed to show any repugnance at her defect, but had asked to be introduced to her and chatted with her, displaying unusual interest in her without seeming to be conscious that there was any difference between her and other girls, unless to her advantage. But when he asked her if he might not call upon her the cup of her delight was full.

A few months after the meeting Dr. Emerson asked Edith to be his wife. When she had accepted him he mentioned for the first time her defect, telling her how that he believed he could remove at least its effects.

"Why," said Edith, "didn't you remove it before proposing to me?"

"Because, sweetheart," he replied, "these stupid men who have been passing you by would have learned of your real worth, and the world would have been full of rivals."

There was more in her eyes than in her words when she replied, "You know very well that none of them would be so feared by you."

But Edith dreaded lest in case an operation were not successful her lover might find himself tied through life to a blighted woman and unhappiness for both would result. She therefore insisted on having the operation performed and if the trouble were removed the marriage to take place afterward. Dr. Emerson demurred to this, saying that whether the operation were or were not a success he would not give her up. Both stood firmly on the ground that they had taken, but the man, since the result would be the same to him in any event, finally yielded.

The operation was merely a matter of delicate handling, its only object being to produce a certain result of facial expression. Dr. Emerson performed it himself, covering the wound he made with a piece of skin from the arm of another person. When the whole had healed and the bandages were removed, though the scar remained, the expression on the face had entirely changed.

Dr. Emerson is facetious in his remarks upon how he kept rivals from the girl he wanted and whom as his wife he considers a treasure.

Little Bed-Time Tales

By EDITH HAVENS

The Thin Ice

ADDIE and Baby Ray were two little country boys. They lived away up on the top of a great hill, about a mile outside of the city.

Addie was nine and Baby Ray was four.

In spite of their being very little folks they oftentimes journeyed to the city to do some little errand for their mother.

Today was one of those biting, sharp, late fall days, and Mrs. Morrill, working in the kitchen, discovered she needed some nutmegs for the delicious mince-meat she was making.

The children were playing in the sitting room.

"Addie," shouted Mrs. Morrill, "will you and Baby Ray do an errand for mama this fine cold morning?"

The children rushed to the kitchen.

"An errand down town?" cried Addie, all excited. "Can I go too?"

echoed Baby Ray close behind her.

"Yes, I want some nutmeg for the mince-meat," said Mrs. Morrill.

The children jumped up and down with glee, for they loved to take the long walk to the city.

After wrapping them up warm, Mrs. Morrill kissed them good-by with instructions to be very sure and go by the road and not to cross the pond as the ice was not thick enough to bear their weight.

"Now, remember, don't try to go across the pond," were her final words. And out into the cool air went the children.

Down the road they walked, hand in hand. Addie went slowly in order that Baby Ray could keep up with her. They watched the swallows skimming about above their heads, and they laughed and shouted as they walked along.

Presently they came to the pond. How beautiful it did look. It was covered with ice and looked as smooth as a mirror.

"Why should we not go across that way, it will save ten minutes," thought Addie to herself. She remembered what her mother had told her and then the thought came into her mind that her mother was far away and wouldn't see her if she and Baby Ray crossed on the ice.

"Yes, she would do it, it would be fun to slide," and taking a firm grip of Baby Ray's hand, she started out on the ice.

Without the slightest warning the ice bent and then snapped, and with a cry they sank into the water. And it was very cold and deep water.

If Mr. Thompson, the grocer, had not been driving by in his team just at that time something terrible would have happened, but as it was he ran to the edge of the pond and dragged the little people to the shore.

They could not talk they were so frightened, and their teeth chattered with the cold.

HELD AS THIEF F OPERAS

Man Who Returns Stolen Manuscripts
Arouses Suspicion of Police.

New York, Dec. 31.—The two operas in manuscript form entitled "Raffaello" and "Die Bräutchen," submitted for the $10,000 prize offered by the Metropolitan Opera company, which were brought to the East One Hundred and Fourth street police station, were identified by Walter Damrosch's secretary as the two operas stolen on Dec. 24 from an express wagon.

The man who appeared with the missing manuscripts, giving his name as James Rea, but later found to be Dennis Higgins, told conflicting stories as to how he came into possession of the opera scores. Being unable to locate the two men who, he said, had given him the package nearly a week ago, he himself was charged with the theft and arrested. He was held in $2,000 bail.

OUTLAWS PERISH IN SWAMP

Officers Lose Trace of Eleven Fugitives at Edge of Quickbunds.

Clarksdale, Miss., Dec. 31.—That the eleven negroes in the band which terrorized this section for two days and precipitated the race war in which two were killed and three fatally wounded, have perished in Black Bayou swamp is generally believed here.

The negroes were trailed by bloodhounds to the edge of the swamp. As there was no evidence of a boat the officers came to the conclusion that the negroes had either been drowned or swallowed up by the quickbunds.

ASKS STRAPHANGER REBATE

Lawmaker Has Bill Providing Half-Fare Voucher for Standees.

Indianapolis, Dec. 31.—Representative William E. Wagner of Clark county will introduce in the general assembly next week a bill for the relief of the street car straphangers. It will provide that whenever a passenger on an electric car is compelled to stand the conductor must give him a voucher entitling him to a rebate or additional transportation to the value of one-half his fare.

HIS GIRL GONE; ENDS LIFE

Disappointed Man Finds Death on Pillow Saturated with Chloroform.

Detroit, Mich., Dec. 31.—"My girl is gone and I don't care to live," wrote Walter Fell, a railroad man of Morris, Ill., to his mother. Then he poured a bottle of chloroform on his pillow and went to bed. He was found dead in his room.

The name of Miss Rose Fiedkye, of Morris, was found written many times in Fell's note book.

Her Preference.

The pastor of a colored church in the south was rather too much inclined to be "high," introducing various innovations in his church that were not at all to the liking of the old-fashioned darkies.

Among his "new" ideas the pastor had arranged for stained glass in the church windows. This he was showing in triumph to one old woman parishioner, when he asked her how she liked it.

"It's shore beautiful," the old lady was forced to admit; "but 'deed an' 'deed, sah, I prefers de glass jest as God made it!"—Lippincott's.

A SIMPLE RECIPE.

Because he liked to do it, He didn't hurry through it—

I'm telling 'bout a man who loved his work.

It might as well be noted, That's why he was promoted.

And not for long remained a humble clerk.

To see him an successful—To others was disastrous—

I mean the chumps who couldn't understand.

That anyone may get on—A certain thing to bet on—

By doing well whatever lies at hand.

Concrete Blocks For Residence or Business Building

In the construction of buildings the use of concrete is becoming more and more to be the accepted material and the past season has found a great number of contracts filled from the product of the Rock County Concrete Stone Co.

The beautiful residence of Carl Brockhaus on South Main St. is an excellent example of what can be accomplished in both the artistic and substantial building for residence purposes.

The M. Goodman livery barn on West Milwaukee street is another example of what concrete building blocks will do for business building purposes.

We took the contract for the erection of the Goodman building entire. Oftentimes it is desired of those purchasing this material to have the entire work carried on to completion by this company.

Contracts For Buildings and Concrete Work of Every Description Are Handled

such as foundations, walls, retaining walls, farm buildings, silos, in fact most anything that may be done with concrete.

The concrete building block is made with or without a facing, in various colors, in fact most any color one may desire can be produced and most any shape desired can be produced for building purposes. All kinds of ornamental work is made, porch columns, stones, etc.; burial vaults are also constructed.

This company has taken a number of contracts during the past year for re-inforced concrete work outside of the city of Janesville. The large water reservoir for the Clinton village has been completed recently and in process at the present time a 100,000 gallon reservoir for the Elkhorn Water Works System.

Shipments of concrete blocks have been made to Evansville, Edgerton, Clinton, Milton, and a great deal of farm business has been carried on for the erection of houses, barns and silos. Contracts for re-inforced concrete silos have been closed to be built during the coming season at various points in the county.

The use of concrete is in its infancy for farm purposes. The time is not far distant when farm buildings will be erected completely with concrete, as it is the safest sort of construction for barns, and the difference in cost would more than pay because of the extra protection against fire.

Officers of the Rock County Concrete Stone Company are: J. E. Lamb, President; Frank Mouat, Vice President; Mrs. Carrie L. Roberts, Secretary; P. A. Pedersen, Treasurer, and Grant U. Fisher, Manager.

ESTIMATES AND FULL INFORMATION WILL BE FURNISHED THOSE INTERESTED IN CONCRETE MATERIAL ON RECEIPT OF REQUEST.

FIND FUGITIVE IN GRAFT QUIZ

Mayor Orders Charles H. Hyde to Testify in Race Scandal.

HID WITHIN HOUR OF CITY HALL

Missing Official Is Counted On to Explain Circumstances Surrounding Raising of Fund to Defeat Anti-Gambling Law.

New York, Dec. 31.—That City Chamberlain Charles H. Hyde will return to New York before Jan. 15 and testify before the legislative graft committee has been authoritatively stated.

It was stated that Mr. Hyde will not come back of his own free will, but in response to the urgent wishes of Mayor Gaynor, whose ire has been aroused by the criticism falling upon his administration for the persistent absence of Mr. Hyde, who is wanted to testify as to a $300,000 fund alleged to have been raised in 1905 to defeat the racing bills at Albany.

The growing feeling over Mr. Hyde's absence was brought to a focus by the disclosure that the missing city chamberlain had been secluded at Tea Neck, N. J., within a hour's ride of the city hall.

In the last forty-eight hours the mayor has been confronted with editorials in several newspapers demanding that Mr. Hyde either return to his original duties or that a new city chamberlain be appointed.

Feeling against Hyde, who has been absent with his whereabouts a mystery ever since his name came out in connection with the alleged $300,000 "yellow dog" fund raised to defeat the racing bills, crystallized in a complaint filed by a citizen with Comptroller Frederick against paying Hyde his last half of the current month's salary.

The comptroller declined to divulge the name of the complainant, but it is reported that the check for $500, which he was about to forward to the missing official, has been temporarily held up. The complaint states that Mr. Hyde rendered the city no service during the period which the check covers, and that he has no just claim to compensation.

BRITON DISCOVERS NEW STAR

Latest Celestial Debutant Is Also Observed by Harvard Astronomer.

Cambridge, Mass., Dec. 31.—W. D. Dwyer, the newly-appointed astronomer of the royal observatory of England, has exhibited the Harvard observatory that Rev. T. E. Espin of Washington, England, has discovered a new star. According to the cablegram, the star is in the western part of the sky about half way between the zenith and the horizon. The spectrum of the star shows two bright lines.

Prof. E. C. Pickering, director of the Harvard observatory, immediately made observations and gave out the following report:

"The new star is in constellation Lacertae and has been observed both photographically and visually at our observatory. From the collection of photographs examined it appears that the star was visible to the naked eye nearly a month ago. It is now visible with a field glass."

BLOODHOUNDS KILL QUARRY

Burglar Is Trained to Barn and Torn Beyond Recognition.

Mount Sterling, Ill., Dec. 31.—Bloodhounds caught a man they were trailing from Carrier Mills and literally tore him to pieces. A residence in Carrier Mills had been burglarized during the absence of the family and on their return they ordered the bloodhounds brought to the scene. The trail was taken up at once. So eager were the hounds to land their quarry they broke loose from the keeper and chased the man they were pursuing to an old barn. There he was pounced upon by the hounds and so terribly mangled that recognition was impossible. Efforts to identify the victim failed.

INDIAN FIGHTER RETIRED

General Walter Howe, Contemporary of Custer, Reaches Service Limit.

Washington, Dec. 31.—Brigadier General Walter Howe, U. S. A., now in command of the department of Dakota with headquarters at St. Paul, Minn., has been placed on the retired list. He is a native of Bloomington, Ind., graduated from the military academy in 1867 and in his early army career participated in the Indian campaigns and served under Generals Sheridan and Custer. In the Powder River campaign in 1876 he commanded a force of about 200 friendly Indians. During the war with Spain he was in command of Fort Washington, Maryland.

FERRY BOATS TIED UP

New York Has First Municipal Strike in Years.

Ferries on City's Ferry Boats Quit Work During Rush Hours—Much Inconvenience.

New York, Dec. 31.—New York city experienced its first municipal strike in years, when the ferries on the city's ferry boats which ply between Manhattan and South Brooklyn and Staten Island, went on a strike because the municipal government reduced the number of ferries on each boat from seven to six men in order to cut down expenses.

Hundreds of commuters on Staten Island were unable to reach Manhattan except by making a wide detour into New Jersey. The ferries quit in the height of the rush hour. Two ferry boats loaded with passengers were left tied to their slips at the Battery and one boat from Staten Island, having no place to dock, had to put back again.

In the neighborhood of the ferry houses and along West street traffic was congested. Funerals on their way to Staten Island and Brooklyn were hopelessly mixed up with trucks, and an extra force of police were kept busy keeping the streets clear.

LONGWORTH GOWN STOLEN

Thieves Snatch New Year's Ball Dress from Express Wagon.

New York, Dec. 31.—A gown shipped to Mrs. Nicholas Longworth in Washington by a New York modiste and which Mrs. Longworth expected to wear at Mrs. Taft's New Year day reception has been stolen from an express wagon which was conveying it to the station. The dressmaker hastily packed and shipped an exact duplicate which she had in stock.

Washington society was out in force to attend the ball, which Mrs. Taft gave at the White House in honor of her daughter Helen. The White House was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The dance took place in the east room and the music was furnished by the Marine band. A buffet supper was served at midnight in the state dining room.

NO BABIES IN U. S. AFTER 2015

Rate of Birth Decrease During Century Alarms Professor.

St. Louis, Dec. 31.—There will be no children in the United States under 5 years of age in the year 2020, babies, accordingly, will have disappeared from this country as early as 2015.

This is the mathematical conclusion of Walter F. Willcox, professor of political economy and statistics at Cornell university, after exhaustive comparison of the birth rates of the last century.

This condition is to come about, Professor Willcox says, only if "the proportion of decrease in the number of children to the number of women of marriageable age is continued uninterrupted for another 110 years."

ENTER WITH SKELETON KEY

Exponents of Simplified Robbery Make Escape on Handcar—Cashier Affirms He and Daughter Alone Knew Secret of Lock.

Indianapolis, Dec. 31.—The State Bank of New Palestine at New Palestine, a small town near Indianapolis, was broken into and rifled of $6,416 in cash. The door of the bank was opened with a skeleton key.

The robbers know the combination of the safe. When the bank officers arrived in the morning they found the door open and papers scattered over the floor. Not a penny of the bank's deposits was left.

The burglars are supposed to have left New Palestine on an Indianapolis and Cincinnati traction handcar and to have transferred the car from the traction line to the Chicago, Hamilton and Dayton railroad tracks, a short distance from the town. The finding of the handcar near Irvington indicates that the robbers came to this city.

Cashier Henry Fraelech and his daughter, the only persons knowing the combination, are positive that the safe was properly locked. There was nothing to show how entrance to the vault was gained.

2 DIE AS HOTEL BURNS

Three Fatally Injured in St. Paul Blaze; 10 Sustain Hurts.

Gas Stove Explodes and Wraps Building in Flames; Occupants Flee in Night Apparel.

St. Paul, Minn., Dec. 31.—Two dead, three dying and ten others injured in the result of a fire in the Concord Plaza, a family hotel, on Eleventh street, between Robert and Minnesota streets.

The dead: Unidentified woman, aged about 35, Anna Erd, aged 25, suddenly.

Fatally injured: Miss Erd, younger sister of Anna Erd.

Mrs. Rose Moore, 45, burned.

Mrs. Anna Lichtenheld, fell on face jumping from building.

The explosion of a gas stove is believed to have been the cause of the fire. A woman employed in an all-night restaurant, passing the rear of the building at 3 a. m., saw flames bursting from the second story and screamed a warning. Occupants of the flats, awakened to their peril, began making their escape without stopping to dress.

By the time the fire department arrived the building was a mass of flames from the second story up.

Candy Maker Sues Constable for False Imprisonment.

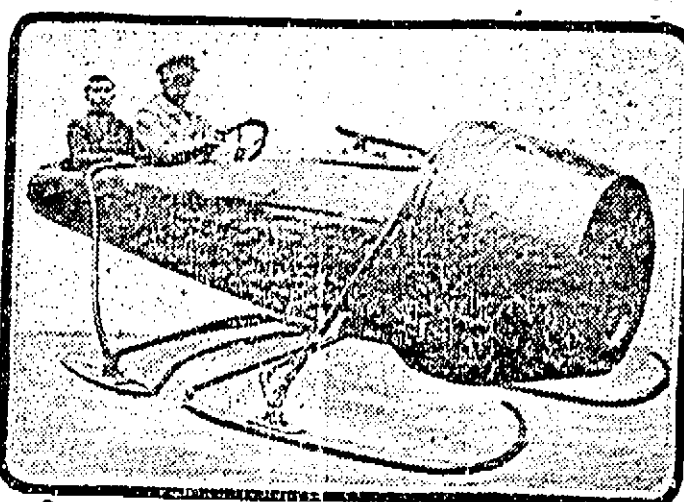

Corunna, Mich., Dec. 31.—Charles false imprisonment, George Capitan, who with his brother, Harry Capitan, owns a confectionery store in Owosso, has started a $5,000 damage suit in the circuit court against Constable L. J. Van Epps of Owosso.

After completing his work in the candy kitchen late Monday night, Capitan went with a friend to the Michigan Central depot to inquire about a train. He alleges that while they were standing by the depot stove, the constable accused them of being tramps and after some words went through Capitan's pockets, finding $600.

Despite the efforts of the young men to explain they were held in jail.

CONQUERING THE SNOW—Motor-sleigh Invented by Grand Duke Cyril of Russia, which is expected to cover 60 miles an hour on smooth level roads.

Seine, France.—The motor-sleigh propelled by an air-turbine is to revolutionize winter transportation, if the hopes of Grand Duke Cyril of Russia materialize. The motor-sleigh has the appearance of a torpedo boat on runners, with a huge drum in front, in which is located an air turbine which draws the sleigh in much the same manner as the airplane is propelled.

An interesting feature of the new invention was the pomp and ceremony with which it was blessed and baptized by the royalty and church in France.

RETROSPECTIVE REVIEW OF 1910

In presenting this year's retrospective review of the year's happenings in Janesville and the immediate vicinity, The Gazette feels that a few words of introduction may not be amiss. Care has been taken in the compilation of the figures, the telling of the story of the year's work and progress, in recounting the daily happenings, relating the sorrow and happiness of the individuals and the general prosperity of the community at large.

The year Nineteen Ten is closing, the last sands of the Hour Glass are running low and in a few hours we will bid welcome to the new-comer—Nineteen Eleven. The dying year is still with us. His time is short but before he passes into the land of yesterdays and tomorrows, the country of the forgotten promises and the unfulfilled pledges, he pauses to glance over the history of Janesville, to tell the tale of the achievements, to pass over the failures and to wish all a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

During the past twelve months Janesville has passed through another stage of its development. New business undertakings have been started and new names have appeared in its annals. The Industrial and Commercial Club has had its inception and begun its work of making Janesville a prosperous community. New industries have been started and prospered and the new year will see the city in a flourishing condition. Many of our old and respected citizens have passed to the world beyond, the angel of death sparing neither young or old in its grim journey.

Janesville today greets the world with a smiling countenance, with a pride of accomplishments, a pleasure in anticipation of what the future has in store for her and bids welcome to all to come and unite their interests with her, certain of prosperity in the coming days of Nineteen Twelve.

Why this is the Best and Cheapest Place to Have Your Tires Repaired.

Because we have the best equipped tire repair plant in Southern Wisconsin; the best results cannot be obtained without the proper facilities. That is why we have spared no expense where the quality of our work required it.

Because we have one of the best tire repairmen in the U. S. in charge of our shop and doing all of the work where skill and experience are required to make every job perfect. That is why we are able to absolutely guarantee every tire we turn out and stand back of the guarantee.

Because we use nothing but the best of repair materials and test them thoroughly before using them. That is one good reason why we have so few replacements to make and stand back of our guarantee without causing ourselves a big loss by so doing.

Because every job is absolutely guaranteed for 2000 miles of service.

Because we back up that guarantee to the letter, as we believe that only by so doing can we hold our customers' confidence and trade.

Because ours is a Janesville industry, launched and carried on by Janesville boys and deserving of the trade of all Janesville boosters.

THE world delights to honor a man whose life is one of industry and service to his fellow men. It is so with an institution of any kind. We deem it worthy of honor and respect if its years have been years of usefulness and progress. Let each year mark a growth, an advancement over the one preceding and the end takes care of itself, and with it is brought much satisfaction alike to those who direct its destinies and to those whom it serves.

About fifty years ago THE JANESVILLE GAS LIGHT CO. was incorporated—a small company, indeed and with but limited service. Today there are but very few business firms and residences that are not served.

And we look forward hopefully to the coming year, 1911. The years past have been years of progress, with some disappointments thrown in. They have also been years of hard work in striving to give our city a Gas Service of which it might be justly proud. We appreciate the position of responsibility we occupy and in the discharge of that responsibility we strive to merit the enthusiastic support of all our people.

The past few years have seen the transition of gas from the list of luxuries to every day necessity. In fact there is not a day in the year, or even an hour in the day, when customers are not being furnished with gas for light or fuel. It takes watchfulness to meet the incessant demand and that is what we are here for, and that is why we take a great deal of satisfaction in the successful completion of each year's work in the public service.

That all may find the coming year of 1911 one of Happiness and Prosperity is the sincere wish of the

AS the days go by still more proof accumulates that the Chiropractic Science surely makes well and happy men and women, out of those who were ill and suffering. Pages of this newspaper could be filled with these instances—cases of severe and long seated illness that medicine and doctors failed to reach and help. We wish it were possible for every sick one to see and talk with those who have found such marvelous help in the simple Chiropractic Science.

One man came to our office suffering tortures with what was called "neuralgia" in the face. He had tried all the remedies usually prescribed; had "doctored" and tried in every way to find relief, without any benefit. At last he took the wise step he should have taken at the first. One Chiropractic adjustment relieved him and gave him the first night's sleep he'd had in a week, four made him so well that he goes up and down the street telling about the wonderful benefits he received from the Chiropractic science.

J. N. PUDDICOMBE

DO YOU WANT TO BE WELL?

Do you want perfect health, freedom from disease and a cessation of doctor's bills? We can tell you the way. We know it and can prove it. We want you to know and prove it, too. No matter how long you have suffered, no matter what your disease, there is a cause for your illness and the Chiropractic Science searches out and REMOVES the CAUSE. What does ill health mean to you? What would you give for health? When We tell you that we know a way for you to be well we tell you the solemn truth, a thing that we can demonstrate to an absolute certainty.

Every sick Man, Woman or Child within a reasonable distance of our office should come to us at once. It will cost you nothing to talk this matter over with us and learn the sure and certain road to health.

Hundreds of sick ones dragging out a miserable, weary existence, suffering and hopeless, have been restored to health by the Chiropractic adjustments—No Medicine—No Cutting—No Mystery—simply common sense. That's all. If you cannot come to see us write at once.

If you have been reading our announcements and are not yet convinced that the Chiropractic science is what we say it is, we invite you to call at our offices for a FREE consultation and advice. The Chiropractic science will make you well when all others have failed. When we have examined you we can tell you what your ailment is, what it is caused from, and explain to you how the cause can be removed. If it is not perfectly plain to you, after that you need feel under no obligations—you can leave the office and your examination does not cost you a cent. If you want adjustments you will find our charges so low that you will wonder how the medical profession dare charge such exorbitant prices.

Remember, we do not ask you to tell us what your sickness is—we tell you. It is our business to know. The Chiropractic science reveals the truth to us that the medical profession must "guess" at—because of their methods of treating symptoms and not removing the cause.

Better come in the first thing tomorrow and have a talk.

THE MARMON

"The Easiest Riding Car In the World"

THE STANDARD OF STABILITY

The Marmon Exemplifies In the Highest Degree the Remarkable Output of the Motor Car Industry--Not In Volume, But In Quality of Output

Five years ago you were lucky to jog along ten miles without a breakdown. Better design, new steels for special automobile purposes, and experience in manufacture have changed all that.

All cars are more durable, more reliable than they were. The Marmon stands pre-eminent among them for remarkable consistent performance. Its long runs under the terrific strains of a-mile-a-minute speed without stop demonstrated a stability that was impossible a few years ago.

Even now, do you know of any car, at any price, that will stand up to such work?

Manufactured—not merely assembled—by a manufacturing institution that has a world-wide reputation of more than fifty years to sustain.

You will admit all of this and probably ask, "Why the Marmon? Why not any car?" And we will answer about as follows: "An automobile should be sold on the solid foundation of past performances—what it has already done; not on the slim foundation of what is hoped and gloriously predicted by some producers." Look at the following statement of the American Speedway Records. Take the first table—records REGARDLESS OF CLASS. The "Marmon 32" stock car holds 12 of a total of 33 records, and the Marmon 48 horsepower racing car 8 more; 20 out of 33 held by Marmons and 12 out of 33 held by the 32 horsepower stock car. The Marmon 32 holds more of these valued "Regardless of Class" records than any two other makes. As to the meaning of the classifications shown in the table, Class B is open to any stock chassis under the technical committee's definition and is sub-classified into divisions according to cylinder capacity and weight. Division 5 for cars of 451-600 cubic inches and 2,300 lbs. minimum weight. Division 4, 301-450 cubic inches and 2,000 lbs. Division 3, 231-300 cubic inches and 1,700 lbs. minimum weight. In Class B, Division 5, the Marmon 32 holds 14 out of 23 records. In Class B, Division 4, 9 out of 32 records, and in Class B, Division 3, the Marmon 32 holds all of the 18 records. In all the Marmon 32 holds 53 out of 106 American speedway records—just one-half—and "the Marmon 32" is probably the smallest car which has competed constantly during the season just closed.

In giving these records we do not wish to emphasize the tremendous speed or power of the Marmon, but we do want you to comprehend its reliability, strength and durability. Its uniform success in the only competition offered with all other cars regardless of size, power, or cost, thoroughly demonstrates its worth. These things were accomplished by the 1910 model. The 1911 model is mechanically the same. The body is improved and the wheel base is longer. That is all.

$600 For This Same FORD Car
Without the Above Equipment

The reason why is told in a few words: We are in a position to do business on a small profit.
Over 50,000 of These Model T Cars Have Been Sold—THEREFORE, BUY A FORD.

When Henry Ford built his first automobile, he realized its importance as a factor in the progressive life of America and he determined to build a motor car that would have the largest demand from ALL the people. He knew that such a car must be light in weight, reliable in construction, inexpensive to maintain and low in price.

From that memorable day in 1903 when the FORD MOTOR Co. was organized, there has been no halt in its march of achievement. Ford has been "doing things" every day—working to one purpose: A car for the people at a price the people can pay.

To fully achieve this purpose FORD cars must be made in such large quantities that a small margin over the cost would produce a satisfactory profit. Continuous quantity demand could only be assured through quality of production and perfect after service to owners.

To establish this quality, there must be specialization and organization to accompany inventive and mechanical genius. It is an accepted fact that Henry Ford is the one original and most successful designer of motor cars.

From the beginning all FORD efforts have been concentrated upon one model. Concentration is a fixed principle with Mr. Ford, in order that perfection of product with the utmost economy in manufacture may be had. And so, throughout the entire Ford plant, in every department, every man and every machine is busy on the production of this one Model T.

We have built and fully equipped the most complete automobile manufacturing plant in the world. All of which has been paid for from the profits earned on the business of previous years.

Our factory is built to profit from quantity production. Occupying 60 acres of ground, built and equipped at a cost of two and a half million dollars, it is unsurpassed in the industry. The main building is four stories in height, possessing over one-half million square feet of floor space. To the FORD factory facilities is added the greatest of operating systems—a model in the eyes of industrial men everywhere.

In the cylinder department special machinery has been installed which enables the operators to turn out fifteen (15) cylinders at one time. Most factories turn out one (1) cylinder at a time, but with this mechanical aid we are able to turn out fifteen (15) cylinders at one time, absolutely perfect in every detail. The care which would be exercised on one (1) cylinder is exercised upon fifteen (15), thereby saving time and money by multiplying the output of one operation.

The same class of machinery—only more of it—is used in the gear department as is found in the factories which make a specialty of higher priced cars. The motor assembling department has a capacity of 300 per day. There is an automatic department where nuts, studs, screws, bolts, etc., are turned out at the rate of hundreds every hour.

By thus reducing the cost of production per car over 30,000 cars will be built in 1911 at a less cost per car than it cost us to make 20,000 in 1910—though materials and labor practically cost the same.

Our normal working force is 4,000 men, building 30,000 cars. Contrast this with factories employing from 7,000 to 12,000 men and making only 10,000 cars and less. Wages and overhead expense are a large part of the cost of any car. Here's where FORD factory equipment and manufacturing organization reduces cost of production, while accentuating excellence in the quality of FORD cars.

Those sort of facilities, combined with the purchase of the entire output of steel mills and equipment factories, give the reasons for the enormous FORD production and the extraordinary low price of the completed car.

The Ford Company has no bond issues to pay off. There are no mortgages upon their property. They have no indebtedness. They do business on the "spot cash" discount basis, purchasing in large quantities, commanding the lowest prices in the market of materials. Therefore can well afford to sell the FORD Model T at the above low prices.

The FORD Model T is made through and through of Vanadium steel, the most expensive steel in the world and the toughest known. It is impossible to obtain the same results with any other steel. Although it is made a feature in the specifications of several makers, in no other car is it used so absolutely as in the FORD cars.

Vanadium, an alloy, melted into the crude steel, adds to the tensile strength, prevents crystallization, or crumbling of the steel and gives added elasticity that is not found in any other steel. Vanadium Steel is stronger than chrome-nickel steel, manganese steel, or any other kind of steel.

All steel is able to withstand heavy load; the test comes with the vibration or shock. A steel girder which helps hold a great building will perform faithfully as long as there is little vibration, but it will quickly break if subject to unusual vibration, or shock. Automobile steel is under constant vibrational strain, torsional strain or shock. Vanadium Steel has greater strength to withstand such wear. This is the reason for the strength of the FORD Model T.

Gears, axles, shafts, springs, levers and every strain or load bearing part of the FORD Model T is of Vanadium Steel. This is the secret of the lightness and strength of the FORD. With such a steel it is only necessary to make parts one-fifth the size of ordinary automobile parts, and still have them stronger.

This best of all special steels is further strengthened by scientific heat treatment in the FORD heat treating plant. After $200,000 had been spent in our search for the best steel, thousands more were spent in equipping the most complete heat treating plant possible. This heat treatment brings the axis of every molecule of the steel parallel to that of its neighbor. Clamps the thousands of molecules into a compact, strain-resisting mass, defying crystallization.

Every strain-bearing steel part of a FORD Model T is scientifically treated in this up-to-date and modern plant by passing through from three to four ovens, equipped with electrical temperature devices. Not one vital part is thus treated, but each part, from crankshaft to fender iron. (A FORD car may be lifted from the ground by its fender irons.)

Strains are considered—sudden shocks, torsional strain and vibration. Pistons are necessarily differently treated than shaft drives because of the different nature of the strain to which they are subjected. Just as each FORD Model T part requires a certain predetermined amount of Vanadium, so does each piece call for a different heat treatment for a longer or shorter time. We get the maximum results from the very best steel which money can buy.

When a piece of Vanadium Steel is placed in a Ford car, it is as perfect as human hands and brains can make it. Out of every shipment of steel three pieces are selected at random and subjected to a chemical analysis before the shipment is marked fit for heat treatment. There are five tests on the steel before it is machined and an inspection after every machine operation.

Over 50,000 FORD owners are this minute proving the durability and economy of FORD construction. Over 50,000 FORD owners know that the FORD is built so light and yet so strong that it costs less to maintain than any other car. That is why the FORD is now and will continue to be the favorite and foremost amongst all motor cars.

Vanadium Steel causes FORD repair bills to be less. FORD weight proportionate to the horsepower causes fuel bills to be smaller—less to cost less. One gallon of gasoline carries a FORD twenty to twenty-five miles. One set of tires carries a FORD from 5,000 to 10,000 miles.

FORD ingenuity has originated brakes, with a braking surface of 6.1 square inches per pound weight; the average is 5.1 square inch. FORD tires are the largest, per pound weight, of any automobile—2.33 cubic inches of tire per pound. Hence the FORD tire economy. There is no necessity for a FORD Model T to be equipped with extra tires.

The FORD magneto is an integral part of the unit power plant. No batteries are used, no brushes, gearing, or moving wires. Trouble makers have been banished. A slight movement of the flywheel generates current enough to make a powerful spark.

The FORD Model T was the first car with the left drive, now being copied by many. When you are seated upon the right side you are at a great disadvantage in learning whether a vehicle is overtaking you upon your left—as required by traffic regulations—and the moment you turn to the left, looking behind you on the right a large section of the street is hidden from view by your own car. To have a clear view you must stand up and look over the back of the car. If the design of the car prevents that course you must leave your seat and look behind from the left. A turn to the right does not require any of these precautions. Vehicles are not supposed to pass you on that side, and there is no occasion for extreme caution when changing your course in that direction.

In stormy weather you are permitted to alight from your car at the curb from the right side. With the right drive you are either forced to crawl over the levers, or tramp around in the mud from the left side.

The FORD Model T has met all the demands of city and country life. It is the family car of pleasure, the fast car for the busy business men, the reliable car day and night for the doctor, the dependable car on the farm—all because of its being built to fill a practical mission. It is all that a car should be, filling an all around service—a car for the people, and at a price that any one who can afford to keep a horse and buggy can pay.

Ford Service for Ford Owners

The car on the road means as much to us as the car in the showroom. This is the "why" of FORD SERVICE FOR FORD OWNERS—the first and most complete service in the automobile industry.

FORD SERVICE FOR FORD OWNERS is as extensive as the company's sales organization, which covers the world. FORD dealers number into the thousands. FORD branch houses are established in all the leading cities in the world. Fifty miles in almost any direction in this country brings you to a FORD dealer and supply depot.

Every Ford Model T buyer knows exactly what repair parts will cost him. At the time of purchasing his car he is supplied with a complete parts price-list, in which every individual part is individually priced.

The FORD Model T is the reflection of the personal integrity of the Company behind it. The organization, personnel and policy of this company is the same today as on the day of its organization eight years ago. Greater assurance of satisfactory service cannot be given to the buyer of any motor car than the service which goes with the FORD.

Make arrangements with us for a demonstration. Send to us for FORD descriptive literature.

"Buy a Ford Car because it is a better car, not because it is cheaper."—Henry Ford.

This is the challenge of confident merit—merit in every detail of automobile construction, and automobile service—that merit which has been so consistently and continuously demonstrated by FORD Cars through years of exacting demand in every kind of service. In the fierce battle of the mile-a-minute races, in most difficult hill climbing contests, in the long endurance test across the continent, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, pioneering roadless plains and deserts, fording streams, scaling mountains, through mud and sand, loading the way successfully through tests which racked and strained every part of the car but could not break it down. These tests have been made to prove the scientific correctness of FORD design and the strength of FORD construction; to prove beyond a doubt that an automobile could be built light in weight, yet strong and everlastingly reliable; to prove that the FORD was an all-around car of general utility, necessary to the demands of progressive civilization, equally valuable in city and country.

A completely equipped Touring Car for $780 that will take you and your family anywhere you want to go in town or country—forty or more miles an hour, if you wish—quietly, smoothly, and comfortably. Yes, luxuriously, from 20 to 25 miles on one gallon of gasoline, from 5,000 to 10,000 miles with one set of tires. Can you beat it? What more can any car at any price give you in service?

If you want a car for only two or three passengers, take the FORD Model T Roadster; same chassis, same power plant, same construction, with a different body, for $680.00. Fully equipped. It seems impossible that such a proven, reliable car can be sold for such a low price. But herein is the triumph of Henry Ford—a car for all people at a price within the possibility of nearly every man. It has taken seven years to accomplish this achievement in automobile construction, and an investment exceeding seven million dollars; but the victory is complete in the FORD Model T.

In all the world no other car like this. Isn't the FORD the car you will buy? It is not alone the sterling reliability of the FORD, the high quality of its construction, nor the remarkably low purchase price, but there is a powerful appeal in the cheapness of running a FORD—the low cost of upkeep or maintenance, after you've bought it. This is something to think about when buying a car: "How much will it cost me to run it?"

The FORD MODEL T weighs about 1,200 pounds. Other cars of the same power and size weigh from 1,800 to 2,200 pounds; yet by Vanadium Steel construction (which we tell you of more fully in another part of this page) the FORD has by far the greatest strength.

Light weight means more power to carry the load—less power necessary to carry the car itself. Light weight means less jarring and strain on the motor and mechanism of the car; therefore, longer life with less repairs than in the heavier car.

Light weight means smoother riding—the FORD with scientifically proportioned tires and absolutely evenly balanced springs skims over the rough places where the heavier car bounds and jolts unpleasantly. Light weight means more mileage to the gallon of gasoline; means longer service from tires.

The FORD Model T is the lightest weight car in the world—size, power and capacity considered—and herein lies the certain economy in up-keep and satisfaction in service.

Another important and basic principle with us from the beginning is this: Our interest does not end with the sale of the car, but continues during the life of the car.

Including Ford branches, there are nearly 2,500 FORD dealers in the United States—they are everywhere, and wherever they are, they are alert and active in looking after the interests of FORD owners.

This entire page is filled with valuable information regarding FORD cars. Read every word. There isn't an exaggeration nor misstatement. Then, when you buy an automobile, "Buy a FORD because it is a better car—not because it is cheaper." Buy it in the confidence that you will get more car, more comfort, more pleasure, more value for your money than you can in buying any other automobile in the world.

Compare FORD Model T with any other—with all other cars. Compare it part by part. Let the FORD dealer explain the construction of the car; ask him all the questions you may think important; let him give you a demonstration of FORD riding qualities; let him show you how simple the FORD is to operate; then examine other cars the same way. Compare, we say, we urge, we coax comparison, because the FORD is sure to win your confidence strictly upon its merits.

Over 50,000 Ford cars in service at this very minute. There's a reason; and that reason is FORD design, construction, durability, service and economy in price and maintenance.

WISCONSIN TELEPHONE CO. TO INSTALL MODERN PLANT

Building Equipment to Cost $75,000.—One of the Best Telephone Exchanges in the State.

The new central energy plant of the Wisconsin Telephone Company in Janesville will be ready for service by July 1st, 1911. The building will be modern in every respect, is completely fireproof and is one of the most attractive in Janesville.

The completion of this new plant is another evidence of the rapid but steady advance of the telephone in public favor as a means of communication, especially in the business life of Janesville and its tributary territory.

Probably it is not generally known that through the new Janesville plant, in addition to service within the city of Janesville, each Janesville subscriber will be in touch with 135,000 toll subscribers in Wisconsin, and with 30,000 stations of other companies, which connect with the lines of the Wisconsin Company. Each Janesville subscriber practically is part of a web of communication spread over the larger state, and in the making of this web 35,000 miles of toll wire is required.

With the completion of the new plant, the moment any Janesville subscriber takes down the receiver an efficient operator will respond, ready to perform whatever service is required by the subscriber.

The telephone has long since taken its place in the life of the day as a necessity. To any business or professional man today, a telephone is as necessary as the building which houses his place of business or the office in which he follows his profession.

In the commercial world the telephone is the means by which business pours into the subscriber. Go to the telephone, take down the receiver, call for a number, speak a few words and in less than one minute an important deal is closed.

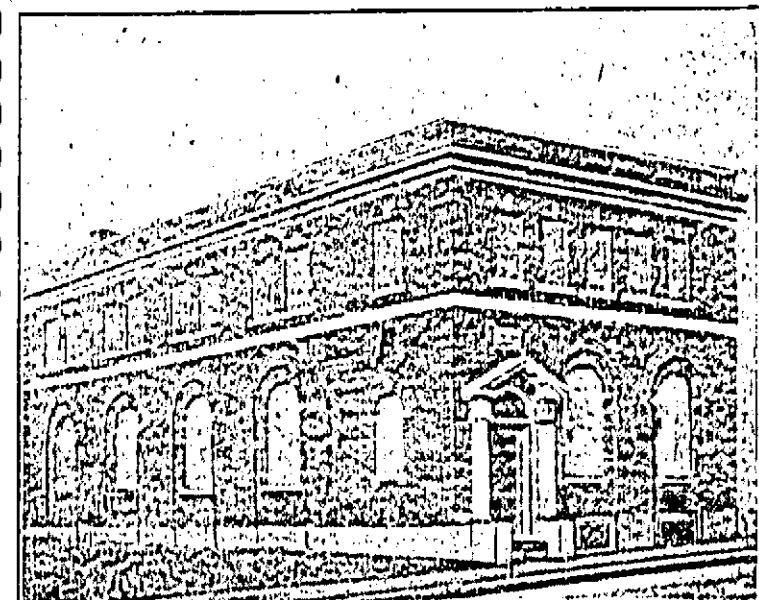

The Blue Bell of the Wisconsin Telephone Company represents the highest efficiency in service given by its great telephone system, operated by an army of highly trained employees. The policy of the company is set forth in the following extract from a statement made for the benefit of employees:

"Everyone connected with the company should bear in mind that it is the purpose of the management to furnish efficient, comprehensive and economical telephone service which shall meet the requirements and pocket books of all the people. This purpose is not patriotic merely but is rather intelligent self-interest based upon the belief that to be permanently successful the Company must serve the public satisfactorily."

The Wisconsin Telephone Company insists on courtesy on the part of its employees in all dealings with the public. The company feels that each subscriber is a part of its system; that the interests of each subscriber and of the company are mutual. Because it believes that it succeeds as it furnishes the most efficient service.

The new Janesville exchange will cost $75,000. The building is two stories high, with basement, and it is built of red brick, with Bedford stone trimmings and concrete foundation and walls. The basement and the rear of the first floor will be used for power plant and equipment. The offices of the Janesville manager and assistants will be on the first floor. The entire second floor will be used by the operating department.

The telephone wires in the business district are to be underground, which will do away with much of the buzzing sound. The new plant is what is known as the Central Energy System, which does away with the rugging in order to get central. In all, the entire system is to be modern in every respect, and will give to Janesville the best telephone service it is possible to secure.

Wisconsin Telephone Company's new building as it looks today, will be pushed to completion as fast as possible.

SWEEPING AND CLEANING IS EASY WHEN YOU USE

DIAMOND FLOOR SWEEPING COMPOUND

It is a sanitary and dust absorbing preparation to use in sweeping wooden floors, linoleums and carpets.

It prevents the dust from rising and filling the air with germs, and making it unhealthful. This is why it is sanitary.

In preventing the dust from rising and covering the furniture, woodwork, etc., the Diamond Floor Sweeping compound reduces your time and work formerly taken in dusting to a minimum. This is why your cleaning will be easier, besides you save lots of time, which you can use to good advantage some other way.

A trial will more than convince you that it is just what we claim it to be. We can supply you with any quantity. Get some today and use it. Sold by grocers here in town.

I CAN HELP ALL MANKIND

I can help you as surely as I have helped hundreds of others. I do not ask you to believe in Clairvoyance and Psychic Phenomena because intelligent men and women of this enlightened age do not believe in things they do not understand, and but very few people understand this wonderful power possessed by but a few. I realize the great ban that has been placed upon all Clairvoyant Mediums and I am glad of this because many of the so-called "Clairvoyants" are but "Fakirs," who travel the country because they cannot remain in any one locality without being found out.

Prof. Harry Daverkosen

I Am a Born, Gifted Clairvoyant

My readings are reliable. Janesville has been my home for thirty years. My references are many of the best professional and business men in this city, who know me personally. I do good to every man. I foretell the future. I can aid all who are in trouble. I answer questions on love, matrimony, politics, business affairs, money matters of all kinds.

Every reading I give is for a specific purpose, and definite questions are answered. I have a Gifted Power of Clairvoyance by which I am able to see (through the Personality of the subject for whom I read) those things which are desired of me. I am a POSITIVE medium. I do no harm—I help many. If you are sick I tell you the cause of your sickness and how to get well. You need not BELIEVE. If you have doubts, or troubles, if you want help, if you wish secrets solved, if you have business trouble, come to me for a reading. Readings are but 50c and $1.00. If you feel that my work is not satisfactory and not worth the price I will not charge you a cent. Those who have no means I help free.

FREE CONSULTATION

from 9 to 11 A. M., daily. Come and visit with me. I will tell you if there is any assistance I can give you through a reading. If you live out of town, write me in confidence. All letters treated confidential (enclose two 2c stamps). Answers by return mail in plain sealed envelope.

PIANO THOUGHTS

Perhaps you have settled the matter of purchasing that long awaited piano sometime during the coming New Year.

A piano means much to the family. There is a wonderfully unanimous testimony to the desirability of having a piano. We do not know any person who regrets having purchased a piano; we know that everybody's opinion that is worth having is favorable to the instrument. A home is brightened and improved by music, and is made a better place in which to live. From the oldest to the youngest, all are cheered and elevated by this ever popular influence. Why should you be without a piano?

When you buy that piano you have been talking about the style of wood and general exterior should be such as to please you exactly. The tone should be rich, pure and musical to a degree. The mechanical make-up of the interior should be such as to insure years of honest service. The price should be suited to your means. The terms should be capable of being easily and comfortably handled. In all of these respects we are in a position to serve you to your entire and lasting satisfaction.

Life as We Please.
 It is as we please; life may be an ugly and noisome and squalid struggle—an affair of a raging mob, going this way and that, hungering and thirsting, and slaying and trampling, without end or purpose; or else it may become cosmic, a splendid and ordered pageant, in which the gray is as necessary as the scarlet, and gold leads to the celestial azure.—Arthur Machen in London T. P.'s Weekly.

Concrete Construction In Up-to-Date Livery

One of the new substantial buildings of the year is that erected by M. Goodman, 408-410 W. Milwaukee St. for livery purposes. It is 33x116 ft. in size, of concrete hollow block construction and has accommodations for 21 horses and 30 rigs. It has a carriage repository 32x60 on the second floor connected with the lower floor by a large elevator.
 It is clean and light and Mr. Goodman carries on a splendid business in high livery, furnishing carriages for parties, etc. He does not do any hack street work.
 The construction of the building was in the hands of the Rock County Concrete Co., while Contractor John Knudsen did the carpenter work.

Refreshing Disinfectant.

The following is a refreshing disinfectant for sick room or any room having an unpleasant odor pervading it: Put some fresh ground coffee in a saucer and in the center place a small piece of camphor gum, which light with a match. As the gum burns allow enough coffee to consume with it. The perfume is pleasant and healthful, being far superior to pastilles, and much cheaper.

Overheating Avoided.

The danger of overheating which attends incandescent lamp sockets containing a resistance unit to lessen the brilliancy of the light is avoided by distributing the resistance through a cord, provided with a regulating switch at the end.

companies paid $388.64. The Burns Station Mill, J. M. Boatwick residence, and Railroad Hotel blues were big factors in swelling the total loss.

Though the fires in 1910 were more numerous by a third than in 1909, it is significant that less than half the number of feet of hose were laid and the ladder was raised fewer times. As an offset more chemicals were used than ever before.

This trend in the development of fire-fighting was responsible for the recent purchase of a 48.1 H. P. automobile, geared at present to 65 miles an hour, for the use of Henry C. Klein, the head of the Department and Chief Engineer. The machine is "good" for any hill and almost any kind of "going." It will be fitted out sometime in January with a chemical tank and appliances for which the council has appropriated $250, and the speed will be reduced to 30 miles an hour, if necessary. Some of the worn out hose has been replaced but this machine represents the one important addition to the equipment for the current year. It is likely in the long run, to prove itself the most important addition made in many years.

 P. H. Merskle resigned his position as full-paid fireman in October and that is the only change in the personnel of the department for 1910. The paid men are: Chief H. C. Klein, Second Asst. Chief C. J. Murphy, Pat Scott, Charles Schultz, Arthur G. Vick, Gallagher, Allen J. Pierce, W. A. Julian, Tetzlaff, Cornhus J. Ryan, James Shortney, and William Davis. A roster of the call men would include: Assistant Chief George H. Osmond, Fred Kenyon, Richard Leitch, Edward Kruger, John Murphy, Charles Thompson, Larry Cronin, Jr., Edward Lechman, Adolph Nickel, James Casey, and John Quinn.

Without question, Janesville has one of the best fire departments of any city of equal size in the northwest. In efficiency it will compare favorably with much larger organizations in much larger cities. The men have been well trained and found wanting in no emergency during the past year, nor during a succession of years, for that matter.

RAZOOK'S CANDY PALACE

"The House of Purity"

The public is invited to visit this magnificent Candy Palace, the most beautiful and modern establishment in Southern Wisconsin. Here every arrangement has been made for cleanliness, convenience and beautiful surroundings.

Sanitary "Pure White" Candy Kitchen

In our candy kitchen, in charge of an expert candy maker, every precaution is taken that it be kept absolutely sanitary and clean. The walls are all white enameled. Utensils are always clean. Ask to be shown through this interesting room; it is always open to public inspection; and see how the candies you eat are made.

Visit the Ice Cream Parlor

Fitted with plate mirrors around the walls, mahogany finished woodwork, decorated with handsome tully lights, chairs and tables of finely finished wood and nickel plated, all tastefully arranged for your comfort and service.

Our Display Room

The display room is fitted with plate glass cases, dust proof and sanitary wall cases filled with the most delicious confections, always fresh and wholesome.
 Razook's Frozen Chocolates are the supreme effort in fine candy making. You'll find no more delicious nor delightfully satisfying candy anywhere. Soft cream centers. Ask for a sample.

Seasonable Drinks

Our menu of soda fountain drinks is always up-to-date. Here you can obtain all of the latest drinks as well as all of the popular drinks. Ice cream is served the year round. Hot drinks at this season. Tempting selections can be made from our menu of hot drinks.

A visit here will be a positive delight. This store offers ladies who are down town shopping a delightful place to rest and refresh themselves. Prices charged for our goods are decidedly reasonable considering the very high quality of the goods we offer. Our service will be found very prompt and courteous at all times.

Deaths During Year 1910

The Death Angel made two hundred and two visits to Janesville homes during the time from January 1, 1910 until December 28, according to the statistics of Health Officer Dr. J. H. Richards. No matter where his cold hand has been laid, to take away the life that hung by a thread, the life in its prime or that which was just beginning, many homes have been saddened by the loss of a loved one or friend. Among the number are several of those prominently identified with the social, religious, civic or other circles of the city. Worthy of mention of Janesville's citizens who have passed away during the year are: Oscar D. Rowe, former register of deeds for Rock county; Col. W. H. Britton, Civil war veteran long identified with the business interests of the city; Stephen B. Kenyon, who served as postmaster of the northern section of Rock county for many years; John Watson, railroad contractor; George K. Collins, designer and contractor; William H. H. Macdon, E. S. Williams, W. H. Ashcraft, David Conger, and a score of others whose names are familiar to all for the part they took in the upbuilding and progress of the community. Of these only brief mention can be made, merely stating the date of their demise and the place

The Home of the Liquid Chocolate Creams

419 Milwaukee St., Janesville, Wis.

Manufacturers of the only "Liquid" Chocolate Creams in America
Special hand rolled goods.

Liquid Chocolate Creams are so named because the pure cream centers are of a liquid softness that never hardens. The material used in the making of Liquid Chocolate Creams are of the finest procurable and it is because of this that the cream centers never harden.

Only expert candy makers are employed. Manufacturers the country over have found it difficult to secure EXPERT candy makers, and those in our employ are in all probability the only EXPERTS in this section.

Liquid Chocolate Creams are made in Twenty Flavors and in Three Grades

CONCRETE HOUSE.

ESTIMATED COST $2000.

The building of a home may truthfully be called an epoch in a career and the intending home-builder will find it much to his advantage to make a careful investigation before that eventful time comes of the relative merits of building materials and choose those which will insure permanency, stability, comfort, strength and architectural beauty, unless he cares not for the money he spends so wantonly, unless he cares not whether his building, be it a modest home or a pretentious dwelling, pay him back as an investment on the money expended or whether it be proof against the ravages of storm, fire, flood, time and the elements.

The drawing accompanying this article are merely to illustrate what has been accomplished along the lines above cited, combined with a view to economy in plan as well as construction. The house shown may be built monolithic, concrete poured walls practically one unit, or it may be built of two concrete walls, an outer and an inner wall and tied together, leaving a dead air space between; it may be built of cement blocks with plastered face; it may be built of cement stucco applied to hollow terra cotta building blocks, or it may consist of a cement surface troweled upon and thoroughly imbedded expanded metal, with the floors and interior partitions may be of concrete or may consist of hollow tile blocks over which the surface treatment of cement, or hard wall plaster should be applied, the interior should be trimmed and all openings cased with metal trim or fireproof wood, the basement and porch floors should be of concrete or squared tiling, and the roof constructed of concrete applied to self-centering expanded metal or may consist of first class slates, or asbestos shingles; in all cases the result is an unburnable or fireproof building which when economy, comfort, permanency, low rate of insurance, low cost of keeping up, absence of repair, warmth in winter, coolness in summer, are considered, it is plain to be seen that this type of dwelling is the safest, most desirable and cheapest building that can be built in the long run; then again considering the building as an investment or with that pride or affection with which a man regards his own home, a concrete building will be found to outlast all others, for it retains its original value indefinitely, while other forms depreciate in value rapidly and in proportion to rotting of parts, need of paint, wear, and as enumerated as for instance, comfort, durability, strength and lastly that of low comparative cost and we now come to the adaptability of concrete to the styles of architecture, and here we find it most suitable, for, while the picturesque, low-roofed "Spanish Mission" style of architecture of Lower California is familiar to most of us and is at once suggested by the words "concrete residence," a concrete building may be rendered in any of the styles of architecture, owing to its plasticity and ease which it may be moulded into any desired form, from the modest low cost modern home as illustrated to the handsome, magnificent mansion of the millionaire, it is equally adapted as a building material, and it is this feature that gives this material a distinct advantage over all other materials and makes possible any style of architecture.

What Janesville Citizens Have Done to Improve the City During the Past Year

Although the government census report gave Janesville only an increase of a few hundred in population in the last decade, nevertheless it is proven that this is a prosperous and enterprising community by the fact that over a quarter of a million dollars were expended in this city during the year in building and construction work. There has been nothing spectacular in this building, it is true, but still it is of a substantial kind that indicates prosperity.

Four factory buildings of considerable size and importance have been erected in this city within the past year. Although they have been the natural growth of home institutions and have not been additions to the numbers of factories already opering here, the fact that local manufacturers have found it advisable to expand to the extent of erecting new building accommodations speaks well for the business prospects of the city.

The Rock River Machine Company's new plant, the Shurtleff Creamery Company's factory, the Willard-Harlow building and the new plant of the Janesville Batten Mills are the factories in question. Besides these there are a number of other large and important structures which have been built this year. Among them are the Janesville Machine Company's warehouse, the new exchange office for the Wisconsin Telephone Company, the Janesville Traction Company's new car barn, and the Wisconsin Carriage Company's new warehouse. These eight above mentioned buildings alone represent an expenditure of nearly $125,000.

Not to the line of factory and business buildings alone has the activity in building been confined. Quite a number of beautiful residences costing from $1,500 to $6,000 have been built in Janesville during the past year. Beside the new houses which have been built the large number of remodeling and repairing jobs which have been done are especially noticeable. These range from extensive alterations involving a cost of several hundred to a thousand dollars to the multitude of smaller repairing jobs which are too numerous for special mention. In fact these latter works, which include shingling, porch repairing and the like, have occupied nearly all the time of some of the contractors.

There was one circumstance which occurred early in the year that resulted in a serious drawback on the building work of the season. This was the unusual strike which occurred in the spring and lasted for over six weeks. Right at what is usually the busiest time of the year in the building line all work was practically tied up, and not only were the carpenters and contractors driven to seek employment out of town, but also the erection of many buildings which would otherwise have taken place this year, was deferred to some more favorable time. The late summer and fall saw some very important buildings started, however, and for the most part the fall and winter has been fairly favorable for the building of the late fall work.

All in all, this year has been a fairly prosperous one in the building line and a quarter of a million dollars worth of substantial business buildings and residences is a very creditable year's showing.

One of the largest construction

works in the city during the past year was the new warehouse of the Janesville Machine Company on the corner of River and Pleasant streets. This is a four-story fire-proof brick structure with basement and ground dimensions 100x120 ft. Cost is placed at upwards of $25,000.

Another large building project of the past season was the new factory of the Rock River Machine Company. This is a brick fire-proof structure with ground dimensions 125x130 feet. There is one center aisle and two wings on either side thirty feet wide. A well equipped office occupies the upper story of the south wing. The cost of this factory is a number of thousand dollars.

One of the most modern up-to-date factory buildings erected this year was that of Shurtleff Creamery Company on South Main street. It is a two-story brick structure put up at an expense of about $13,000. With its equipment it is one of the best factories of its kind in the state.

The Janesville Batten Mills is another factory constructed this year. Work was begun during the month of May and completed about the middle of October. It is a two-story brick building, fire-proof, and involved an outlay of some $15,000. Ground space, 70x80 feet. Ford & Boes, contractors.

The Willard-Harlow factory is a two-story brick building located in Spring Brook. It was finished early in the summer and involved an expenditure of some $2,500. Its ground space is 32x70 feet. Ford & Boes, contractors.

The Wisconsin Carriage company, erected a warehouse on Center avenue. It is a frame building, covered with sheet iron on one-story, 115 feet high with a floor space of 168,164.5 feet. It was put up at a cost of $1,000.

This Janesville Traction Company have nearly completed their new car barn. It is a one-story brick structure with a 162x14 feet ground space and a 46x12 addition. Its cost is placed at $10,000. Ford & Boes and J. W. Shearer, contractors.

The Goodman Livery barn on West Milwaukee street is a two-story cement building valued at about $4,500. Remodeling at the Lewis Knitting Factory involved an expenditure of about $500.

A second story was added to the warehouse at the Hough Shade Corporation's Plant giving an added floor space of about 100 sq. ft. The addition was of brick and involved an expenditure of $2,000.

Remodeling and repairs on the offer building and the erection of storm sheds at the Fieheld Lumber Company's yard made a total expense of several thousand dollars.

A new exchange building for the Wisconsin Telephone Company was started during the past year and is now in a fair way to completion. The structure is located on the corner of East Milwaukee and Division streets, and is two stories in height with a large well-lighted basement. The material is vitrified brick with Bedford stone trimmings and the building will be fire proof throughout. Its cost is placed around $15,000.

Alterations and new work at the Janesville Machine Company's plant exclusive of the new building cost about $16,000.

A one-story frame factory building was built for P. S. Peterson on North Main street.

One of the most extensive jobs of store remodeling done during the past season was at the store occupied by the Janesville Candy Kitchen on West Milwaukee street, of which Gust Vlachos is proprietor. The store was redecorated and remodeled completely and entire new fixtures were installed including a $2,000 soda fountain, amounting to all to about $5,000.

Considerable expense was involved in remodeling new fronts in the stores occupied by Olin & Olsen and H. E. Ranecke.

The Monitor Automobile Company expended about $2,500 in installing and fitting up their offices, enlarging doors and making other repairs.

About $2,500 were expended in the remodeling of St. Mary's Hall. A second floor was placed in the building and long school rooms were built on the first floor. All new windows were put in.

The Calverton Army Building was remodelled involving an expenditure of some $3,000.

New fire doors and windows were installed in the rear of the John Watson building occupied by Hauck's clothing store and J. Flanagan's saloon. Cost is figured at $500.

Remodeling in the Strickler residence on North Third street converting it into apartments totaled $700. An addition to the residence of John Rexford was an improvement valued at $300.

Remodeling at the factory of the Strickler Hay Tool Company involved an expenditure of about $3,000. One of the most residences which was built during the past year was that of W. H. Stephenson on the corner of Washington street and Mineral

Are You One Of These 2226?

A history of this company's activities during the past eleven years would not be out of place at this time. From a telephone exchange of 380 phones at the beginning there are now in use 2226 telephones and the growth of the business has been the greatest during the past year of any in the history of the company.

It is little short of wonderful when one stops to figure the telephone conditions in this community eleven years ago the strides which the Rock County Telephone Company have taken forward during that period.

1812 mile of aerial wire connect these 2226 phones, almost enough to reach to San Francisco.

There are 6200 feet of under ground cables carrying the wires to the distributing centers away from the main streets of the city and this company were the pioneers so far as Janesville is concerned in taking their wires from the poles which had been too numerous in the main streets of the city.

THE ROCK COUNTY TELEPHONE COMPANY NOW HAVE MORE UNDER GROUND CABLES THAN THE OTHER COMPANY WILL HAVE WHEN PRESENT CONSTRUCTION WORK IS FINISHED.

Thirty five people are employed carrying on the business of the company of which 26 are girls.

350 miles of toll wire reaching every town and city in Rock and Green County, as well as a great number of cities and towns in Walworth, Racine and Jefferson Counties, are owned by this company.

The citizens of Janesville and this section of Southern Wisconsin appreciate the fact that the increase in the number of telephones in use, the greater territory covered and the reduction of telephone rate both for local and toll business are due to the activities of the Rock County Telephone Company. The great number of subscribers are the best evidence of this fact.

We take this occasion to wish our many friends and patrons a Happy New Year.

The Janesville Pure Milk Co.

An Institution of More Than Ordinary Value to the City of Janesville

Few people realize the great value they derive from being able to have Pasteurized Milk daily and few people realize the fact that Janesville has one of the best milk depots in the country.

2500 Bottles of Pasteurized Milk Sold Every Day in Janesville

Your safety lies in using only Pasteurized Milk—the safety of yourself and your entire family. It isn't worth while to run the risk of typhoid fever and other dread diseases—"Use Our Pasteurized Milk."

Ours is the only modern plant in the city. It's adequately modern in every way. Come visit us and let us explain the pasteurizing process to you—it's mighty interesting and brings out all the reasons why Pasteurized Milk should be the only kind used.

Read How Our Pasteurized Milk is Handled

The milk of the evening before and of the morning is delivered to us each day by the farmers. The milk is weighed, and turned into a receiving tank, it going through a fine bolting cloth in order to keep out any impurities. From the receiving tank it is pumped into the pasteurizing vat by a sanitary milk pump and strained a 2nd time through fine bolting cloth. It is heated to 165 degrees in the pasteurizing, and immediately cooled and run into the bottling machine through a third fine bolting cloth. The milk is bottled and sealed by machine, automatically, so that none is wasted and at no time is it touched by human hands. Seven wagons are maintained for delivery throughout the city.

Sanitary Conditions Prevail

When the milk is delivered the work of the day is not finished, however, as perfectly sanitary conditions must be maintained. The vats, the machines, the pasteurizing plant everything that has to do with the handling of the milk is sterilized with live steam and thoroughly cleaned. The cement floors are thoroughly scrubbed with boiling water each day. Every bottle is washed in hot water with soap and a revolving brush which cleans it thoroughly. It is then rinsed and put into a drying case and then run into an oven which is heated to 240 degrees and left in there for 15 minutes. This is done to sterilize the bottles and to be absolutely sure they are in fit shape to retain the milk.

PASTEURIZED MILK COSTS NO MORE THAN RAW MILK.

Yet it is richer, sweeter, purer and better. Telephone tomorrow and have our wagon stop. You will never be satisfied with any other milk.

WILL BUILD A NEW MILL AT THE MINE

Workmen Removing Machinery From Wrecked Building Of Baxter Mine Near Cuba City, Wis.
 On December 9, at the Baxter mine near Cuba City, in which Janesville doned portion of the mine and a portion of the mill connected with the property was wrecked. The wreck was about one hundred and twenty feet high and caused the dismemberment of the mill, the beams extending under a part where a battery of boilers were situated.

A few days later, on December 15, the second accident occurred, a fur-

PICTURE OF BAXTER MINE BEFORE CAVE-IN. CUT SHOWS MILL AND POND AND MINERS' HOUSES IN REAR.

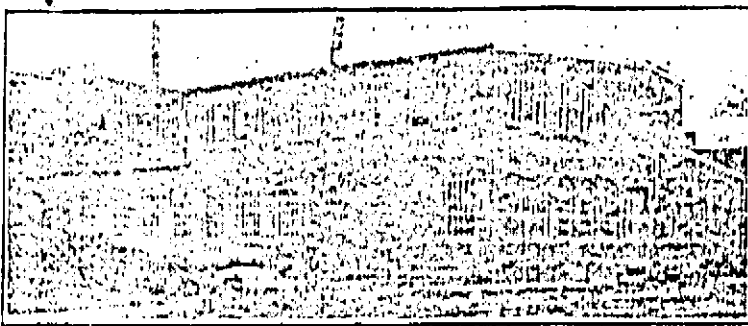

Investors are interested, a fracture in the rock caused a cave-in in an abandoned portion of the mine.

CAVE-IN AT BAXTER MINE SHOWING FRACTURE 30 FEET WIDE AND PORTION OF WRECKED MILL.

The primary cause of the cave-in, according to George S. Parker, is through the large pond near the mill, occupying from one-half to three-quarters of an acre and four or five feet deep, containing water that had been pumped from the mine. The pond was over a part of the mine and when the earth gave way the water rushed in with a roar. The superintendent of the mine anticipates further caving in when the frost is out of the ground, as this is acting as a binder for the rock at the present time. Wreckers have been at work since the accident, and it is hoped the two boilers which sank partially when the mill was wrecked can be removed to a place of safety. All the machinery that it has been possible to remove has been taken from the wreck of the mill.

Drainages.
 "Would you marry for money?" asked one girl of another. "Not I, I want brains!" was the reply. "Yes, I should think so," said the first speaker. "If you don't want to marry for money?"—Philadelphia Inquirer.

One Way to Get Laborers.
 One of the large wheat growers in Kansas made an agreement with a police judge to pay the fines of all delinquent men convicted in his court on the condition that they were turned over to him to work out their fines in the wheat fields at $2 a day. He got 12 good laborers in that way and has offered several of them steady employment.

Worth Remembering.
 One thing I have learnt, and I think it is worth remembering, that a heart heaven may be reached and touched everywhere, that one can help or hinder happiness by a tiny word.—Amy Le Feuvre.

Heroic Treatment.
 Little Marjorie, aged four, bumped her head on a key in the front door. She went in the house and put some cold cream on a rag and then went to the door and tied the key up carefully. As she was leaving she said: "I will call in the morning to see how you are."

Rank Cowardice.
 It is cowardice to wish to get rid of everything which we do not like. Sickness and sorrow only exist to further man's education in this world; they will not be needed in the future.—Novels.

A Warning.
 "You want more money? Why, my boy, I worked three years for $11 a month right in this establishment, and now I'm owner of it." "Well, you see what happened to your boss. No man who treats his help that way can hang on to his business."

Good Things Are Eternal.
 Bring your children up to be happy. Don't let them be any more superstitious than you can help. But, at any rate, avoid one horrible, haunting belief that good things can't last. The good things are the only eternal things of the world.

Don't Let a Lack of Training Cripple Your Prospects For a Successful Future

Every Parent Should Read this Announcement and Consider It For Their Sons and Daughters

You may be working in a line not suited to your ability—working for a small salary—working in an obscure position where your ability, your faithful work, cannot be seen and REWARDED by "the boss."

If you are not—if you are yet to commence life's battle—beware of dropping into such a position—of becoming a "round peg in a square hole."

The business world is crying aloud for the proper kind of business assistant—for stenographers who will not be embarrassed by the fastest dictation—for bookkeepers who have had infused into their brains that "something" that makes a really successful, highly satisfactory bookkeeper.

There is no call for the other kind of stenographer or bookkeeper; where there is a call, the stenographer or bookkeeper usually has mighty little salary to call for on pay-day.

Our courses in both of these "broad and better sciences" are THOROUGH—are long enough to qualify the student to obtain and fill and retain a position of trust—a position that carries with it GOOD salary.

Our instructors are competent. We have successful accountant instructors for the business course. We have swift shorthand writers instructing our shorthand classes. We employ the best of instruction, because what is best for our students is best for us. Our pupils' success is OUR success. Their interests are our interests. We do our level best for each and every pupil, because we know that by doing that we are doing the level best for ourselves.

offers you the greatest of opportunities. Prof. W. W. Dale, President of the S. W. B. C., has bought out the entire interest of the Beloit and Janesville Business Colleges. The latter school will be combined with the S. W. B. C., while the Beloit school will be carried on as heretofore. The courses in the Beloit school will be made to correspond with the Janesville school just as soon as expedient. Under Prof. Dale's management the public are assured high grade schools worthy of their confidence and patronage.

After working for almost 20 busy, hard-thinking years in this line of business, don't you think our experience ought to be worth heeding? Take our word for it that

A BUSINESS EDUCATION WILL COST YOU LESS AND PAY YOU MORE THAN ANY OTHER KIND

Don't go on "hearsay," but investigate this matter for yourself. There are opportunities in the business world you never dreamed of. Why take chances in some other line of work? A talent to succeed in anything will pay you ten-fold more in business.

But your success is going to be determined in a large measure by the "START"—the school in which you secure your training. All schools are not alike in this respect, no more than all stores are alike.

HIGH QUALITY OF WORK AND STANDARDS OF EDUCATION ARE CONFINED TO TOO FEW BUSINESS SCHOOLS

The importance of securing your training from competent men can not be too strongly emphasized. Our long experience in business college work has shown us how to present every subject to the prospective student so that no time may be wasted and the greatest efficiency produced. Unless the facilities offered by our schools and the results attained, are more satisfactory than elsewhere, we do not expect the patronage of ambitious young men and women.

Our Business Course

Including Bookkeeping, Accounting, Banking, Arithmetic, Spelling, Penmanship, Commercial Law, Business Correspondence, Office Practice, and Business Economics and Civics, offers the young man or woman a training of such HIGH GRADE as to fit him or her for the BEST bookkeeping or other clerical positions.

Our Stenographic Course

Consisting of Shorthand, Spelling, Penmanship, Business Correspondence, Touch Typewriting, Office Work on the latest office devices including Adding Machine, Writerpress, Mimeograph, Letter Press, Carbon Copying and Vertical Filing, fits any young person to perform duties that fits them for the HIGHEST POSITIONS offered by the Shorthand world.

The excellent work which our students are able to perform after completing the above courses has caused business men everywhere to seek our graduates. This demand is increasing constantly. Today we placed one of our young lady graduates in Ft. Atkinson at $9.00 a week to begin and one of our young men in Platteville at $60.00 a month. EVERY STUDENT WHO COMPLETES OUR COMBINED COURSES OF STUDY WILL BE PLACED OR TUITION WILL BE REFUNDED.

The Pity of Wasted Talents.

Examples are given us every day of the foolish manner in which individuals use their gifts, until we are at times constrained with horror to ask,
"What gifts to fools avail?"

People are so prodigal in dispensing their gifts or in throwing them away, that one is often forced to wonder why talent was given to one and fortune to another. Yet, after all, it may all be a part of the great universal scheme.

We see the talent thrown away,
through neglect or want of energy, that if properly directed, would have made the possessor a great physician, with almost infinite possibilities for doing good; talents that would have made the possessor a successful merchant, the Christ-like preacher.
Every time a talent is wasted or a fortune put to ill use, the world's progress is retarded just that much.
We owe a great debt to society. As a part of a great complex system which is interdependent in many of its phases,
we cannot escape from our obligation.
Sooner or later we must pay up.

A neglected talent grows weak through lack of training and finally becomes useless from lack of exercise.
A young woman, possessed of remarkable talent as a painter, dreamed of the time when she would take her place among the eminent artists of her generation. She worked hard to develop that talent, but she was poor and it became necessary for her to support herself at something outside of her art work. So she turned to other lines, temporarily, as she thought. Gradually, the demands of the new work crowded out the other, and finally her enthusiasm for art died.

Lack of practice and want of study made her less sure of herself and her talent slumbered. Years afterwards, two artists, in talking over her gift,

HOCKETT'S BOAT IS FINEST ON RIVER

New Craft Put On Rock River During Past Summer Excels in Speed
And in Its Furnishings.

Interest in boating on Rock river and the stream as a pleasure ground is growing rapidly year by year. The number of boats is being increased and a variety and elaborateness of design is being shown in the making.
Speed and pleasure in water craft is being sought and the channel of the stream is being cleared to make it navigable and safe for all boats. Up-

ROBERT HOCKETT'S FAST MOTOR BOAT, THE "LULAMAE."

river cottages are growing in popularity and more are being built for use each summer. Many of the owners move their families to their cottages alongside the river during the summer months, finding it very convenient to go up the river after their work in the city is finished at night, returning in the morning. The Janesville Boat club has done much in developing and clearing the channel.

Of the many launches on the river,
the largest, and the finest equipped,
is that of Robert Hockett, the "Lulamae," which was built for him this expressed regret that she had not pursued the course she had first mapped out. The older artist, looking very thoughtful, said "How do we know that a great artist was not lost to the world when she gave up?"

That is always a question to be reckoned with in matters of this kind, and I am persuaded that no one has a right to abandon what was evidently meant as their life work, until poverty is brought to bear.

That is always just it. How do we know our possibilities until we have tried them out? How do we know that success and fortune are not waiting for us just around the corner, if we give up easily? When we surrender to present difficulties, or because of love of pleasure, or ease, how do we know that we are not destroying a part of the Great Design?

That is the thing for each of us to remember when we are disposed to belittle our own talents or to forget that life itself consists in doing the best we know how—the thing that most appeals to us.

Katherine Kip

SILK FARM STARTED IN U. S.

Syrian Is Raising Worms and Will Erect Looms in Louisiana—First In South.

New Orleans.—An experiment in silk culture which is watched with interest by the United States department of agriculture as well as the silk industry at large has been started by a Syrian, Kall Joseph, near Pleayune, La., about 52 miles from New Orleans.

Mr. Joseph has raised many thousands of silk worms from eggs hatched on a farm two miles from Pleayune. He says Pleayune is an ideal section for silk culture on account of the numbers of wild mulberry trees there. The silk made from the co-cons is as fine a quality as any made in Syria, which is famous for its silk worm farms.

Mr. Joseph has formed a company capitalized at $100,000, and will erect looms and handle the silk in much the same way as it is manufactured in the great silk centers. The officers of the company are: Kall Joseph, president;
Elias Salk, vice-president; W.
A. Stockwell, secretary, and Charles Marcelle, treasurer.

The Kall plant will be the first bonafide silk farm in the south, and the factory will be the first in the country where the raw silk is transformed into the finished product at the same place where the silk is spun from the cocoons.

Best Used Every Day.

The Sweepstakes Prize Winner.

Plows Like This Captured Two Sweepstake Prizes

Five first premiums, five second premiums, and four third premiums, together with a Gold Medal and three Silver Cups at the Plowing Matches held at Wheatland, Ill., Saturday, September 17th, and Big Rock, Ill., Saturday, September 24, 1910. This makes four years in succession that Janesville Plows have won the Sweepstake prizes for the best work done in any class at the Big Rock, Ill., Plowing Match. These two celebrated Plowing Matches are conducted by the farmers and the competition is open to the United States. They offer their own prizes and have absolute control; are interested in no way, shape or manner in advancing the interests of any particular manufacturer, and have but the one and sole object, and that is to create a sentiment in the community for better and more efficient farming methods and are unquestionably attaining that desire.

So you see the Janesville is a success, not alone on paper but actually in the field.

Made in Janesville

Farm Implements were first made in Janesville in 1859 by the Harris Mfg. Co., whom we succeeded in business. We now manufacture over 50,000 complete machines each year, and several thousand extra parts for repair. Our goods go all over the United States and into Western Canada. We have twenty Distributing Houses located in different parts of the Country. Our manufacturing plant has floor space equal in area to 20 acres. We manufacture Plows, Harrows, Corn Planters, Listers, Cultivators, Seeders, Weathers.

The Largest Plant Devoted Exclusively to the Manufacture of Farm Implements in Wisconsin

GIRL, 16, UN $20,000 A YEAR

New York Woman Estimates What Her Daughter Needs to Live on Comfortably.

New York.—A girl of 16 can get along on $20,000 a year and live comfortably, according to the estimate of Mrs. Emily Ladenburg, who has applied to County Judge Edgar Jackson at Mineola, L. I., for that amount for her daughter, Eugenia.

Miss Ladenburg is heir to a fortune, the disposition of which is at present in the hands of the court.

Her mother, who is a member of the Meadowbrook colony, filed a petition asking for the allowance mentioned.

In the petition Mrs. Ladenburg says that her own income is only $8,000 a year and that it takes all that for the bare necessities of life.

Her schedule of what her daughter needs for the next year is:

Maid, $20 a month.

Governess, $50 a month.

Clothing, $67 a month, with $1,000 more for traveling and evening clothes.

Maintenance of an automobile, $2,000 a year.

Maintaining two horses, $34 a month, with extra horses, amount not specified.

Groom, $500 a year, with extra grooms, amount not specified.

Tickets to Europe, Miss Ladenburg and maid, $500.

Traveling expenses, $240.

Theaters and other amusements, $250.

Hotel expenses abroad, ten months, $5,500.

Maintenance of country place at Westbury, $5,000.

Rent of apartment on return from Europe, $720.

Tuition and dancing lessons, $1,250.

Treatment of teeth and jaw trouble, $1,000.

Music and incidentals, amount not specified.

Decision was reserved.

Preferred Lion to Wife.

Detroit, Mich.—Luther than face his angry spouse when he came back to their tent at the State Fair at a late hour, James Swenson, a lion tamer, crawled into the cage with one of his lions and slept all night, his head pillowed on the brute.

In the morning Mrs. Swenson investigated a search with a tent stake. With a jab of the stake she awakened the animal tamer.

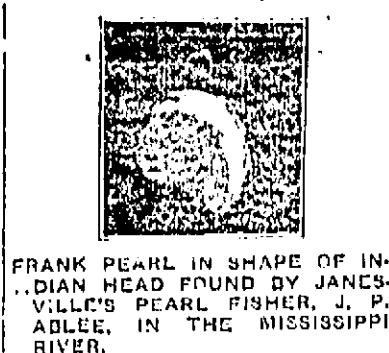

"Coward," she blazed at him, as he snuggled up to the lion out of reach of the stick.

Dutch to Have Celebration.

The Dutch will celebrate the centenary of the re-establishment of national independence by a world's fair at The Hague in 1913.

Circumstantial Proof.

"So you danced with my fiancee last night at the ball?" "Yes. Did she tell you?" "Oh, not I noticed that she was 'hoping to-day!'"

Census gave this country and dependencies 101,100,000.

Mr. Business Man, the Monitor Motor Truck Will Do the Work of Three Teams At Half the Cost Of Up Keep

It is the last word in commercial motor car development.

The day has gone by when the business man with an eye to shaving costs and increasing profits will combat the idea of substituting the motor truck for the horse. It is a proven fact that the motor truck is far more economical.

Read these specifications carefully and compare them with other cars of equal cost.

The Question To Be Settled Is "Which Will I Buy?"

Power plant—24 h. p. (brake test), oiler in the sub base of the crank case which is fed to engine by geared pump. This is the most positive means of lubrication yet developed.

There are no oil connections of any description outside the engine. The oil is pumped through crank case direct on bearings. A special feature in the pistons does not allow any oil to pass by the piston rings, thereby insuring clean combustion chamber and no chance of fouling plug.

Transmission is sliding gear type, 3 speeds forward and one reverse. Transmission equipped with Hyatt high duty carbon roller bearings.

Wheelbase—100 inches, insuring easy riding. 56-inch tread and the gear ratio of rear axle is 7 to 1.

Rear Axle—Semi-floating type, with Hyatt high duty bearings.

Carrying capacity tested at 2,000 lbs., with capability of 25 to 50 per cent increase.

The car comes fully equipped with Bosch magneto, has double ignition system.

The Great Pyramid of Cheops.
The greatest pyramid in the world is that of Cheops, of the Gizeh group. It contains 59,600,000 cubic feet of masonry, is 450 feet high and the total weight of the stone in this mammoth monument has been estimated as over 6,500,000 tons.

A bachelor fair is one of the means employed in Belgium for bringing about happy marriages. Such a fair has been held annually in Brussels for the past seven years. This year it took place on the 21st of May, available bachelors from anywhere being cordially invited. The unmarried girls of the town met the arriving bachelors at the railroad station and escorted them to the town hall to register. In the afternoon there was a pageant of bachelors in the market place, followed by speech-making. In the evening a concert and ball concluded the fair.

New Idea for Long Life.
A novel method of attaining longevity was practiced by Mrs. Vetta Schulman, who died recently in New York at the advanced age of 105 years. Mrs. Schulman paid no particular attention to points of diet, exercise, sleep, etc., which usually figure largely in rules laid down for those growing old. She believed that the lives of aged persons could be prolonged if they associated constantly or nearly so with young people, and the apparently verified her theory, for she spent the greater part of her time in company with children, even taking part in their sports with lively interest.—Lent's Weekly.

Hard to Let Go.
Those who make their money go a long way experience some difficulty in letting it go at all.

Do You Own a Horse?

If You Do it Will Pay you to Read Every Word of This

When you buy horse feed, no matter what it may be, the most valuable element in that feed is protein. Protein is the flesh and muscle builder of any feed. Every feed contains a certain amount of fats which are also beneficial. Also every feed that you may give your horse, including oats, corn, etc., contains a certain amount of indigestible matter known as fibre. Therefore it's up to you to feed your horses upon the feed that will contain the most protein and fats to replace the daily waste of tissue, and the least possible amount of waste matter or fibre that is indigestible.

CASE'S MOLASSES FEED

HAS BEEN TESTED REGULARLY BY THE UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN EXPERTS AND HAS IN EACH AND EVERY INSTANCE BEEN FOUND TO CONTAIN MORE PROTEIN AND FATS AND LESS FIBRE IN PROPORTION THAN ANY FEED OF ANY KIND.

It is composed of corn, barley, bran and molasses. The molasses acts as an aid to digestion and is a "conditioner." There is no secret process of manufacture. The only secret of the success of this feed is COMMON SENSE AND THE BEST INGREDIENTS.

You can feed four quarts of this feed and your horses will look better and be able to do more hard work than if you gave them six quarts of oats. THAT'S one reason why it's CHEAPER THAN OATS. You can feed it to horses doing the hardest kind of work, and they will do that work with an eagerness and willingness you never saw before. It is used by over 400 farmers in Rock county and never has there been a complaint. It is fed to horses here in Janesville doing the heaviest kind of work and it is keeping these horses right in the pink of condition all the time.

Read What Dr. Perschbacher, V. S., Has to Say:

"I have fed Case's Molasses Feed for over three years and I find it is the best feed for the money I have ever used. I have found it very effective on old horses, mares with foal, sickly colts, and in fact any stock that is in a run-down condition. If it is fed intelligently it will build stock up, fatten horses and enable them to do twice the work on much less feed. Case's Molasses Feed is by far the most economical feed for any horse owner to feed. Yours truly, J. PERSCHBACHER, V. S."

Careful thought of the above facts ought to convince you that Case's Molasses Feed is what your horses and stock need this winter. In addition, we back each and every one of the above statements with an absolute guarantee that the feed will do all we claim for it or you get your money back. The quicker you order it the quicker you will get results. Don't put it off, order it now, while you are thinking of it. Phone or write.

GROWERS AND PACKERS OF

Pickles, Kraut and Canned Vegetables

Extends to All Janesville and Vicinity Wishes For a Happy and Prosperous New Year

THIS is our tenth year of successful operation in Janesville. From the first our business has shown development, increasing year by year, until today we operate in Janesville the largest canning and packing factory in Southern Wisconsin, besides others at Rochelle, Illinois, and Dubuque, Iowa. We attribute our large and growing business to the "Quality" and "Purity" of our goods.

At Our Factory Strictly Sanitary Conditions Prevail

Our goods are all guaranteed under the United States Pure Food Acts of June 30, 1906, and pass the most rigid Pure Food laws made by any state in the Union. Each can of our goods must pass through the hands of from 4 to 6 expert inspectors before being put on the market.

Visitors Welcome

Visitors are welcome to call at any time and inspect this plant and view the interesting way in which modern food products are gotten ready for the market.

At Every Grocery Store

Our products will be found in every grocery store in Janesville and vicinity. We wholesale only. Specify our brands when you order canned goods and you will get the very utmost in quality, at popular prices.

Buy Janesville Made Goods

Don't spend your money for foreign made goods. Rather buy goods you are familiar with—home grown and home made goods—our goods. You will make no mistake when you tell the grocer you want any of the following named brands. These brands are divided into three grades: Fancy, Extra and Standard, all good—very good.

Grades and Names

1. FANCY: MAPLE LEAF, BOWER CITY AND DEWEY BRANDS.
2. EXTRA: PRIDE OF JANESVILLE, KEY CITY AND RIVERVIEW BRANDS.
3. STANDARD: BADGER STATE, A. 1, AND HOMELIKE BRANDS.

A Wise Way to Purchase

Many housewives find it a wise plan to purchase these goods in lots of three to six cans each, of the different kinds. There is an advantage in always having a supply on hand and, too, many grocers give a discount from the regular price on purchases of this kind.

WE own and operate farms and factories in Janesville, Necedah, Shennington and Millston, Wisconsin; Rochelle, Rockford, Byron and Gray's Lake, Ill., and Dubuque, Iowa. The entire capacity of these nine plants is over one and a quarter million cases per year. This output leaves the following statement undisputed: That the P. Hohenadel, Jr. Company are the largest packers of canned vegetables in the world.

NEWS FORECAST FOR COMING WEEK

Congress Will Resume Its Business on Thursday—Important Cases Before Supreme Court.
(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Washington, D. C., Dec. 31.—The resumption of the session of the Supreme Court, both of which bodies are now enjoying the customary holiday recess, together with the meeting of numerous state legislatures and the inauguration of new governors will combine to make the first week of 1911 prolific in news of wide interest and importance.

Congress will meet Thursday to resume its business and the expectation is that the real work of the session will be taken up and disposed of with all the rapidity that circumstances will permit. Several sessions of the House are likely to be held, with a view of facilitating the administration's legislative program.

With Chief Justice White presiding for the first time and with the two appointments on the bench, the Supreme Court of the United States will convene Tuesday for what promises to be a highly momentous session. Decided for argument at the earliest possible date are the all-important commodity clause cases, the Standard Oil and tobacco corporation dissolution suits, and the corporation tax cases.

Following years of agitation and discussion, postal savings banks will become an accomplished fact in this country on Tuesday, the first working day of the year, when the system will be introduced for trial. On that day one experimental office will be opened in each State and Territory of the Union. The offices selected for the trials are all of the second class and in localities where conditions are favorable for a postal savings business.

During the week the legislatures of the following States will meet for their regular sessions: California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Dakota and Tennessee. In many of these States the legislatures will proceed within the next week or two to the election of United States senators.

In New York, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Connecticut and a number of other States new governors will be inducted into office during the week. Other events and happenings that will figure more or less prominently in the news of the week will include the President's New Year reception at the White House, the local option elections to be held throughout Ontario, the meeting of the Quebec legislature, the convention of Progressive Republicans to be held in Minnesota, the annual convention of the National Woolgrowers' Association in Portland, Ore., the opening of the National Automobile Show in Madison Garden, New York, and the trial of James J. Gallagher, who attempted to assassinate Mayor O'Connor, which is scheduled to begin Tuesday in Jersey City.

RACE FOLLOWERS THROWING TAMPA

Big Meet Begins On Monday And Will Be In Progress Until Middle of February.
(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Tampa, Fla., Dec. 31.—This city is teeming today with trainers, owners and other followers of the turf, while at the big racing plant of the Florida Midwinter Fair Association are quartered several hundred of the fastest horses in the country, all here for the opening of the Tampa Racing Association meeting, which will begin Monday and continue until the middle of February. The excellence of the programme and the liberality of the offerings in stakes and purses have combined to attract an unusually high class of entries and the association officials are looking forward to the most successful meeting ever held in Southern Florida.

HAS ORGANIZED ATHLETIC CLUB

Club Under Directorship of Jack De-laney Has Been Formed for Physical Culture and Boxing.

Under the directorship of Jack De-laney a new athletic club has been formed in this city for the purpose of instruction along the lines of physical culture and boxing. The club at present is known as the Physical Culture and Boxing School but it is intended to re-organize later under the name of Badger Athletic Club. A class of some twenty-five young men are at present receiving instruction at the club rooms on West Milwaukee street and it is planned later to form a business-men's class for instruction along the same lines. De-laney has an excellent record in boxing, having won the 142-pound class and lost some of the best men in that division in the last eight years. His boxing bouts are planned for the near future.

MAJOR CHARLES BARNEY WAS RETIRED TODAY.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 31.—Major Charles N. Barney, Medical Corps, U. S. A., was placed on the retired list today upon his own application. Major Barney is from Ohio, and served as first lieutenant and assistant surgeon in the Fifth Massachusetts Volunteer Infantry in the war with Spain. He was appointed assistant surgeon in the regular military establishment in 1901, and reached the grade of major last January. He has been stationed recently at Fort Mifflin, N. Y.

J. P. BAKER IS HEAD OF THE GOLF CLUB

Elected President At the Annual Meeting Held Last Evening—Other Officers Named.

That the past year has been a most successful one and the promise for a prosperous coming season is most bright, was the consensus of the reports filed last evening at the annual meeting of the Janesville Golf Club in the library of the Gazette. J. P. Baker was elected president for the coming year to succeed H. P. Bliss, who has served during the past twelve months. Charles Gage was re-elected secretary as was Harry S. Haggart as treasurer. The board of directors for the coming year elected are David Holmes, Albert Schaller, Frank Blodgett, Francis Grant and F. E. Lewis. It was also decided to make an appropriation, not to exceed two hundred dollars, for the use of the next house committee, to be used to defray expenses of the dances which were found to be one of the most paying elements of the club life. Plans were also made to make the course more sports by making bunkers and additional hazards. This matter was however left to the board of directors at some future meeting. A vote of thanks was also passed in which the members of the present House Committee of which Miss Louise Merrill was chairman, were complimented upon their work of the past season. The report of the treasurer and secretary showed that the past year has been most successful financially and shows an increase in active members. The new committees will be named at some later meeting.

NEW PENSION SYSTEM FOR STEEL WORKERS.

New York, Dec. 31.—With the beginning of the new year the United States Steel Corporation will put into effect a pension system for the benefit of its employees. Two plans have been adopted. One provides for the pensioning of men of 60 years of age who have been in the corporation service twenty years. If the employee desires to retire, the other provides for compulsory retirement at the age of 71, with a pension if employee has been twenty years in the service.

THREE AUTOMOBILE SHOWS IN GOTHAM

Will Command The Attention Of Trade and "Consumers" During The Coming Week.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
New York, Dec. 31.—New York's automobile show season is on, and for three weeks the motor vehicle will rule, before it drops back to its normal position among the pleasures and commercial conveniences. Promptly at 2 o'clock this afternoon the doors of the Grand Central Palace were thrown open for the Eleventh Annual International Automobile Show, comprising the display of the "Independent" manufacturers of automobiles and accessories. Monday will see the opening of the Importers Automobile Salon at the Hotel Astor, and on Saturday of next week the annual National Automobile Show, under the auspices of the Association of Licensed Automobile Manufacturers, will open in Madison Square Gardens.

SHOTER DAY FOR TWENTY THOUSAND

Eight Hour Schedule For Lithographing Trades Goes Into Effect With Advent of Year.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
New York, Dec. 31.—With the advent of the new year the men employed in the lithographing trades throughout the country will begin work under an eight-hour schedule. This is in accordance with a decision reached last May by the National Association of Employing Lithographers. Between 20,000 and 30,000 workmen in all parts of the country will be affected. Therefore the men have worked nine hours a day. Simultaneous with the establishment of the shorter working day there will be inaugurated a plan providing for sick, accident and life insurance without cost to the employees.

FREAKISH HATS ARE PASSING

Gotham Expert Returns From Europe and Dooms Foulish Headgear and Hobbie Skirts.

New York.—Mrs. Jesse Tobey, head of the millinery department of the household arts division of Columbia university, has just returned from a summer spent in studying prospective styles abroad.
"The American women in Paris are more attractive and artistic in their nature than the French women," she says. "Women are soon to wear the hat which most becomes her without regard to the foolish and unbecoming articles which style dictates."
"The hobble skirt will have to go; it is dangerous to the life of the wearer. The freak hat also is about to pass into oblivion."

NEW NEWS OF YESTERDAY

Grit That Won International Contest for America.

How "Tommy" Holcombe's Nerve, When One Eye Was Disabled, Decided Famous Rifle Match in England in 1903.

BY E. J. EDWARDS.

Some weeks ago the cable brought the news from Peking that an American team had won over all competitors in an international rifle match open to teams of all the nation guards in the Chinese capital. The captain of the Yankee team was Capt. Thomas Holcombe, Jr., who was a member of the victorious American team that competed in the great international rifle contest held in England in 1903—the most famous contest of the kind ever held. And it was at this contest that Captain Holcombe displayed the grit that, on the authority of the captain of the team, Leslie C. Bruce, ultimately gave America the victory. It is a story that hitherto has escaped publication. "Seven teams took part in the match," said Mr. Bruce, "and as America had been the victor in every similar contest held previously, a very honorable but nevertheless very earnest attempt was made to take the prestige away from the United States. Especially did the Englishmen go in with the idea of wresting this glory from their American equals, with the result that when the shooting was finished at the 800-yard range they had us distanced by three points. I have been told that when the cable dispatches informed our countrymen that we had been beaten at the 800-yard range the general impression was that at last an end had come to America's victories. To us of the team the outlook was somewhat gloomy. I must confess, and as captain I was considerably worried, as to whether or not we would be able to manifest at the nine hundred and one thousand yard ranges that esprit de corps which plays so important a part in winning contests in which teams are engaged. "I was still wondering whether this particular kind of enthusiasm, or confidence, which is so hard to describe in words, would be with us, when Tommy Holcombe took his position at the nine hundred yard range. Of course we watched him with intense interest, and you can imagine the horror that rose in our breasts when, just before it came time for him to fire, his smokeless powder cartridge exploded prematurely, and the gas from it saturated his right eye, so to speak, closing it completely. "As speedily as possible I got a cloth and some cold water and bathed the burning eye, while bitter thoughts ran through my brain, for I had counted greatly on Tommy Holcombe's shooting at the nine hundred and thousand yard ranges. But the water did the eye no good—the pain was too severe, it was burning like fire. I afterwards learned—and so I finally had to say to Holcombe: "Tommy, I guess you'll have to retire and let me put a substitute in your place."

"Tommy jerked his head around and with his good eye looked into mine. 'Not much,' he retorted, grimly. 'As long as I have got one good eye I can make the mark.'

"The way he said it, the look in that one good eye, the superb confidence of the man sticking out all over him, decided me. 'All right,' I said, and a moment later Tommy took his position, coolly and carefully aimed, and at last fired. Hurrah! Tommy Holcombe, one-eyed though he was—with fire burning at his closed eye, and filling that member with intense pain—had made a clean bull's eye!

"The effect upon us was instantaneous. A few seconds before we had been in despair. Now we seemed like men inspired—esprit de corps was among us again in victorious measure, bull's eye after bull's eye was recorded in our favor, and when the shooting finally concluded at the range we found that we led the English by seven points.

"A little later the greatest of all international rifle contests was ours by a margin of 15 points, and I have always felt that the grit displayed by Tommy Holcombe at the nine hundred yard range and his resultant bull's eye decided that contest for America by giving us the proper esprit de corps at the critical period of the match."

MONROE CARDINAL CLUB HELD ANNUAL BANQUET

Forty-one Members Were Served at Festive Board at the Ludlow House—Monroe News.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Monroe, Wis., Dec. 31.—The Cardinal club held their third annual stag banquet at the Ludlow House, forty-one members taking part in the elaborate five course banquet. A striking incident of the occasion was that the five original members of the club, known in its embryonic days as the Badger club, were among the guests. A flashlight picture was taken of the Cardinals grouped about the three tables. Toasts were responded to by Archibald Nance, who told the joys of returning home as he responded to the toast, "The Home-Comers." Otto Haack responded to the toast, "Cardinal Club vs. High School." J. Hay Fitzgibbon admonished all Cardinals to become benefactors of the subject, "The Married Men," and Fred Kuhl on the affirmative, and Fred W. Kohl on the negative, debated the subject, "Shall Women be Invited to Our Banquets?" The judges called the bout a draw. Leo Cahn gave a German reading from Macbeth and the banquet closed with "Auld Lang Syne."

Personal.

Miss Hulda Burgy was most pleasantly surprised at her home, 200 N. Madison street, when twelve girl friends surprised her on the event of her birthday. She was presented with two dozen carnations as a token.

Miss Elmo Elmer gave a chiding dish luncheon at her home for Miss Ina Wenger of West Chicago, who is her holiday guest. Twelve in all were present.

German Schindler is confined to his home suffering from an attack of acute rheumatism.

Miss T. Gottling is laid up with an injury to his back received while routing meters.

Alva Downs, residing north of town, will lose the sight of one of his eyes as the result of spilling whitewash in the member while working about his barn. Mr. Downs' doctor advises the removal of the eye in order to save the eyesight of the other.

Postoffice Hours for New Year's Holiday, Jan. 2nd.

Office will be opened from 8 a. m. to 3 p. m., and from 2 p. m. to 5 p. m. Carriers will make their usual mail deliveries, and be at their windows from 2 p. m. to 5 p. m. Rural route service suspended for the day.

TOBACCO BUSINESS IS EXTREMELY DULL

Buyers Have Generally Withdrawn From County Districts And Little Activity Reported Elsewhere.

According to the Edgerton Tobacco Reporter the holiday week, never prolific of business in the tobacco trade, is particularly a dull one this year in the Wisconsin field. Buyers generally have been withdrawn from the country districts until such a time as the tobacco can come down from the sheds and be examined in the bundle. In old leaf, outside of moderate demands of small manufacturers, there is no news to report. Packers are busy making up their annual inventories, and until the books are balanced little effort to increase business will be made. News comes to us from the East, however, of the sale of the Hoffman packing of '08 Wisconsin, some 2200 cases, to a New York dealer, which, if confirmed, is the most important deal in some weeks.

Indications of easing weather which were present earlier in the week have now entirely disappeared and all hope for removing some portion of this year's crop for stripping is gone. Until another "soft spell" arrives the tobacco seems likely to be very near a standstill.

The shipments out of storage are light, not exceeding 200 cases outside of two cars of bundles to all points for the week from this market.

RANSOM TAKES HIS OFFICE NEXT MONDAY

New Sheriff Will Receive the Keys to the Jail From the Retiring Sheriff, January 2.

According to the new, Sheriff-elect, Emile Ransom will take office on Monday next, taking over the keys of the jail and charge of the fifteen prisoners he will find there. Sheriff Elmer Schell is today moving his household effects from the jail building to his old home in Beloit where he will remain for the present. However he has a business opening in Janesville which he is considering and it is possible that he may become a resident of this city, moving here with his family early in the spring.

Sheriff Ransom will find fifteen prisoners awaiting him at the jail. Two are women, sent up from Beloit for long terms, having nearly five months yet to serve; one a male prisoner from Edgerton who has just begun his hundred and twenty day sentence; and the other twelve for shorter terms. As yet Sheriff Ransom has made no official announcements of his possible appointments but it is understood that former Sheriff John Comstock will be appointed deputy for the city of Janesville. This will meet with general approval. Mr. Comstock was sheriff in 1879, later served as alderman from the second ward and then was chosen city marshal. He has had considerable experience in the duties of the office and will make an excellent successor. Mr. Ransom will move his family to Janesville the first of the coming week.

LAKOTA CARDINALS PROVE STRONG TEAM

Local Basket Ball Players Take the Madison Team Into Camp To the Tune of 41 to 2.

It was entirely too one sided to be even interesting that game between the Lakota Cardinals and the Cardinal team of Madison, composed of University players, at the rink last night. When the game was over the local boys had totally forty-one tallies, while all Madison had made was two. In all Madison had made one of the play the first two minutes of the game the Lakota's had taken their measure of the Madison bunch and Bennett scored a field goal. Madison fumbled frequently and dropped the ball at times when good concerted action would have made it possible to score while the Lakota's kept up a running score of goals after goals. Langdon played the star game for the Janesville boys making seven goals, while Captain Drews of Madison was the player from the Capital city that showed any real form. The line up was:

Janesville..... Langdon..... 1g..... Kottko Green..... rk..... Christiansen Bennett..... c..... Grell Robertson..... rf..... Steinh Cunningham..... lf..... Drews Murphy..... rf

Game: Janesville—Langdon, Bennett, Murphy, Robertson, Cunningham, Madison—Drews. Referee—Carlo.

FORMER RESIDENT OF EVANSVILLE WEDDED

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Winston went to Johnston today to spend New Year's with Mrs. Winston's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Winston.

Patrick Mooley transacted business in Janesville on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Axtell entertained the Camping club at their home last evening.

A New Year's dance will be held in the opera house Monday evening, January 2. Everybody is invited.

CAPTAIN DAVIDSON TELLS OF A TRUST

Owner Of the Rock County Sugar Company Took Immunity Bath Before Government Investigation Committee.

Dispatches from Detroit give interesting data concerning the part that Captain James Davidson, of Bay City, Michigan, owner of the Rock County Sugar Company, played in the present investigation of the Great Lakes Towing Company which it seems to dissolve. The dispatch is as follows:

Are Like Corks.

The girl looking for a proposal will find that men are a good bit like corks. Some will pop, while others have to be drawn out.

Probability.

If a woman had any other excuse than "because" for falling in love with a man she probably wouldn't do it.—Chicago News.

Bag and Bagg.

"Do you believe there is any money in moving pictures?"

"There was in the moving picture I saw yesterday."

"What was it about?"

"All Dada and the Forty Thieves."

AT THE PLAY HOUSES

Winninger Brothers.

The vanity of women! Isn't that an interesting subject? Well, this vanity of an aspiring mother is a strong portion in the action of that delicious morsel, "A POOR MILLIONAIRE," which will be presented by the WINNINGER BROTHERS COMPANY at Myers Theater Monday night. The strong developments around this point, which, in this particular instance, nearly destroys the happiness of two young lives, are very ably portrayed by this popular company. There are other striking features in this extraordinary bill and to appreciate its entirely new features one must see the play in its superb entirety. Remember all five of the brothers are with the company this season: Charles, Adolph, Frank, John and Joseph, for the first time in three years.

The furiously funny farce, "Betty and the Baby" will be the attraction at Myers Theater Saturday, December 31, on that evening. The play will be presented here with a splendid company which includes such well known actors and actresses as Violet Vaughn, John Judge, Blanche Alexander, Edward Vaughn, Lillian Black, Sheridan Deader, Arthur Duffy and a host of others. The farce is said to be the funniest that has been written and played since "Charles's Aunt." The production is sumptuous to a degree. The piece plays in repulse with the latest songs, dances and some very attractive electrical effects. "Betty and the Baby" is an ideal attraction for the holiday season and should be given a hearty reception here.

COMMON SENSE CURE FOR RHEUMATISM.

Rheumatism has for ages been a puzzle to the doctors. Some claim it to be an infection, a germ disease. Others claim that the cause is uric acid, a kidney disease. It is said that uric acid is carried by the blood into the small apertures of the joints and skin, where it crystallizes and it is the small, sharp crystals that cause intense pain with every motion of the body by cutting into the flesh and nerves. Whatever the cause, the best relief known is an Alkaline Effleur of the Sarsapilla. The chemical nature of the Sarsapilla is to form soluble compounds with the urates. In this way these crystals are dissolved, taken up by the blood and taken out of the body by the kidneys.

This rheumatic effleur is taken in teaspoonful doses in hot water before meals. The cure is often in a day or two, yet the remedy should be taken for some time to thoroughly neutralize the blood and prevent a recurrence of the trouble. The eliminations, as the doctors would say, that is the kidneys and the bowels, should be kept active. Rheumatic Effleur is compounded by Mr. Phalen, our Graduate Pharmacist and Chemist, who would be pleased to give you any other information you wish. Sold at 50c. Badger Drug Co., Milwaukee and River Sts., the drug store that makes a specialty of drugs.

Captain Davidson, who availed himself of the immunity bath and has told the entire story of the formation of the Great Lakes towing trust.

Detroit, Mich., Dec. 31.—The absorbing story of how a trust is organized was told to the merest detail by that veteran shipowner and builder, Captain James Davidson of Bay City, who took the stand to testify in the suit of the government to dissolve the "towing trust," the Great Lakes Towing company.

Captain Davidson is vice president of the company, a member of the executive committee, and was one of its organizers. Called before District Attorney William L. Day, who put the Michigan vessel on the stand for the purpose of revealing the inner working of the Great Lakes company, said that the captain would not be prosecuted, as a reward for testifying for the government.

The hearing of the government suit to dissolve the Great Lakes Towing company as a trust was adjourned here, to be resumed before Special Examiner Miller at Cleveland, January 3.

Attention, Old Fellows.

No. 30 and No. 141, O. O. F. and No. 171 and No. 26 Rebekah Lodges have arranged a fine watch night program for Saturday evening, Dec. 31st, beginning at 8 o'clock.

Dancing to follow program. The game will be held at West Side Old Fellows' hall. All Old Fellows and their families and all Rebekahs and their families are invited.

MOVING-PICTURE TOY

Circular Band Revolver Swiftly as Twisted String Unwinds.

An ingenious moving-picture toy, that can be made by any boy with a little skill at home, has been dedicated to an Illinois man, and is shown in the illustration. It consists of a twisted string, which, if cut, will unwind, and will then revolve rapidly on one side. The figures may be painted on the string, or they may be cut out of cardboard and pasted on the string. The string is then cut into a circular band, after cutting narrow slots in it between the pictures. Take three cords of equal length and twist one end of each to the middle point along the top of the band, and if you like, twist the cords at the top for convenience, though this is not necessary. To use the toy turn the band around and around until the cords are tightly twisted as far as they will go. Then hold it in front of the eyes and let go of the band. It will revolve rapidly as the cords unwind, and as the slots flash past the various pictures, will have the appearance of life.

EASY TO MAKE AT HOME.

QUICK MEAL

POLISHED STEEL RANGES

The Monarch Malleable Range and Garland Stoves and Ranges. These goods are absolutely the best in their respective classes.

Our tin shop is the most complete in the city. No job is too large or too small for us.

Our business has increased 150 per cent in 1910 over 1909 and we feel that it is due largely to the superior lines of goods we carry and the personal attention we give to all business entrusted to us.

We wish you all a Happy New Year.

FORTY YEARS AGO

The Janesville Gazette, Dec. 1, 1870.—Jettings.—Today is the last day of the week, the last day of the month, the last day of the year. A general sweeping off from everything will take place in the old year shuffles off its mortal coil. The new year 1871 will take its seat surrounded by a bright halo of good resolutions and if they are kept in the spirit which actuates their adoption they will be productive of nobler actions and better deeds in the future of those who will this night take the oath of allegiance to mortality and good habits.

Mr. J. F. Wolzschke is endeavoring to organize a class in German in this city. His place of residence is on Wisconsin street, between Court and Milwaukee streets. He is recommended to us as a gentleman of ability in his calling.

Wm. George of the town of Rock brought to town yesterday a hog of the Chester White breed, weighing 800 pounds at eighteen months old. At the Young Men's association it was decided to keep the library and reading room of the association open during the season as heretofore. Let the people extend a willing hand and liberal patronage to this valuable library in order that its good aims may be accomplished.

Several of our young men are making preparations for New Years call on Monday. As they have all "sworn off" the "compliments of the season" will be taken in milk.

The Concordia society gives an entertainment at its hall this evening at which all can secure a present for the moderate sum of ten cents. Good music will enliven the occasion.

The grocers of the city have agreed to close their places of business at eight o'clock in the evening after January first.

Largest Stalactite Cave.

The largest stalactite cave in Europe recently was discovered in the Dachstein mountains of Upper Austria.

Enlightened.
"Old chap, what does 'ecchinnation' mean?"
"Loud and mirthless laughter, dear boy, why?"
"Nothing; only I understand now what the papers meant when they said that my stories at the club banquet last night caused much ecchinnation."

An Authority.

"Do men like blonde hair or brown hair?"
"Ask your friend Emmy. She was once blonde, then brunette and now her hair is coal black. She ought to know."

A Characteristic.

Tommy—Father, what is a Bohemian?
Father—A man who'll gladly let you share your last dollar with him, my boy.

A WONDERFUL EXPERIENCE

With Newbro's Herpicide
While there are no thrills in the narration of Mrs. P. T. Nicholson, 623 Broad St., Beloit, Wis., her story is nevertheless one of amazing interest. "Stricken with neuralgia and arthralgia, I lost all my hair. My doctor recommended Newbro's Herpicide. I used six or eight bottles and now have a fine head of slightly curly light brown hair. Not a gray hair in my head. This is the more remarkable as I am middle-aged."

While the results which follow the use of Newbro's Herpicide are always more or less astonishing, they are always natural. Herpicide destroys the dandruff germ, stimulates the flow of blood to the hair follicles and keeps the scalp perfectly healthy. It makes possible a natural and luxuriant growth of hair, except in cases of chronic baldness.

While remedies said to be "every bit as good" as Newbro's Herpicide are frequently offered, one should insist upon having the original germ destroyer, Herpicide. That is genuine. It stops itching of the scalp almost instantly.

For sale at all drug stores. One dollar size bottles are guaranteed. Applications may be obtained at good barber shops. Send for it, postage for sample to The Herpicide Co., Dept. H., Detroit, Mich.

30 Days Free Trial

A HUMBUG!

The piano man laughs in his sleeve at the people who imagine they can learn the quality of a piano in 30 days. The unseasoned sounding board in a cheap piano will NOT be thoroughly seasoned in 30 days, but it WILL be in 305 days after you have the instrument placed in your home, and then the "tin pan" period begins and never ends while you own that piano. The mail order houses and other vendors of cheap pianos are perfectly safe in offering "30 days" free trial. If you can't afford to buy a good piano at a fair price, buy a second-hand one of good make.

Every Farmer, Business Man, Salaried Employee and the "Man Who Works For Wages" Should "Eat Up" This Ad. Digest It Thoroughly, and Then Commence To Think

WHERE Nature has given ten months of warm sunshine above, many feet of fertile soil on the earth and an endless supply of artesian water below. For what other section has Nature done so much?

WHEN a man investigates a proposition personally, he knows, or believes he knows where he is at. Any man's eyes are better than all the arguments in the world.

Personal Investigation Courtied

When we talk Cross "S" Ranch irrigated lands, the object of our argument is not to sell until the prospective buyer has visited our Ranch and personally investigated every representation we have made. We aim to have the best class of farmers, business men, salaried employees and the "man working for wages," look over our proposition on behalf of himself and friends.

You must acknowledge this is a fair clean cut business proposition, and it would be business suicide upon our part to take people down to Cross "S" Ranch, unless we were able to "make good" on all of our representations. We are afraid to tell you the entire truth. In many cases we deduct 25 per cent from what can actually be accomplished on a small amount of money invested and even at that, many think we are telling "FAIRY TALES."

Over 500 Acres Sold to Southern Wisconsin Farmers

We had during the last two trips to Cross "S" Ranch fifteen to twenty leading business men and farmers from Southern Wisconsin. We show you here a group of Wisconsin men who were down on our last trip, after thoroughly investigating conditions, they purchased over 500 acres of our lands. We are glad to give you the names and addresses of each, and every man who has visited our Ranch. We would like to have you talk or write to them. You will find each and every one a Cross "S" Ranch enthusiast who would not hesitate to advise his nearest relative, or his strongest business friend to invest in Cross "S" Ranch land, or locate thereon.

Trip Worth Three Times Its Cost

Now, when we hand you arguments of this character, when we tell you we can take you in our own car from Chicago direct to Cross "S" Ranch via The Famous Iron Mountain Route and return at a price for your Round Trip ticket not to exceed $31.20, that you can go and return in a week if you elect, or stay the time limit on your ticket of twenty-five days, and visit beautiful SUNNY SAN ANTONIO, the GREAT WINTER PLAY GROUND OF THE SOUTH, and in forty-eight hours be among the Palms and Flowers, and have an ideal trip, away from the cold rigors of the North, is such a trip worth considering?

This trip alone is worth three times what it costs, but when we make the statement, that this trip will include a chance to make a personal and thorough investigation of Cross "S" Ranch farms, where you will have an opportunity of talking to Northern and Middle West farmers who have made good during the past year and a half, and have raised crops that have more than paid for their land the first year, WHAT DO YOU THINK ABOUT IT?

Values Increase Four Fold In Year

Would you like to talk to men who less than one year and a half ago paid $50 an acre for their land, secured their water, cleared their land and put it in crop and raised Bermuda Onions that paid a profit of from $300 to $500 an acre, that raised Straw Berries, Cantaloupe, Corn, Oats, Cotton, Cane, Asparagus, Cauliflower and almost every conceivable product, and made profits to an extent that they will laugh at you when you offer them $200 an acre for the same land.

You know we are not asking you to take our word for any of this "Dope." We are naturally optimistic and are interested in our own property, but you can readily ascertain when you visit our Ranch that the smallest agent connected with Cross "S" organization, is putting every dollar he can save into Cross "S" Ranch farms.

Cross "S" Lands Net $600 Per Acre

Land in Rock County and Southern Wisconsin sells for $100 to $125 per acre. What are your net profits? Can you clear over all expenses $30 an acre? Can you clear $20 an acre and isn't it a fact that if a man on a

On this land you can raise Bermuda Onions, that have netted as high as $500 per acre net profit. You can raise every other product during the winter months, that will average from $200 to $500 per acre. If you wish unimproved land you can buy now for $50.00 per acre.

Your Investment Nets 10%

Land is worth what it will produce. For the sake of argument instead of netting a profit of from $250 to $400 an acre per year, on your investment, supposing your net income is only $50 per acre. On a ten per cent basis your land is worth $500 an acre.

Time Enough Now To Get In Winter Crops

Take into consideration the fact that if you accompany us on our January 3rd Excursion, which leaves Janesville Tuesday at 7:20 A. M., you will arrive on Cross "S" Ranch in time (if you become interested) to get in a winter crop that you will market during the months of March and April.

You will also be able to put in a summer crop of cotton, cane, alfalfa, peas and other products that you will market in August. You will be in time to put in your onion sets next September and raise your sets, which are transplanted in December.

We have a selfish motive in this, for the Ranch speaks for itself. Parties visiting the Ranch become enthusiastic and tell their friends the very highest class of advertising for itself.

You See the Fruit Grow

Great development work is taking place at the time. You can see the winter crop growing. We will take you south of the Ranch in the old country and show you Grape Fruit, Peaches, Figs, etc. Trees THAT BORE AS HIGH AS THE POUGH OF THE TREE, and in fact will have fruits growing in this section of every characteristic that can be raised in Southern California and other fruit growing sections of the country.

Located In the Heart of Best Market

Cross "S" Ranch is located five hours ride from San Antonio, the largest city in Texas and is bound to entrain Los Angeles, in a very short time as much as the busy business man and to make a trip to San Antonio and return in less than a day at the expense of a trip to the country.

We have built two railroads, one running through the Ranch from North to South and one running East and West. These two roads connect great transcontinental lines of the Harriman and the Gould interests, which are actively competing for a fair freight tariff and the best market shipping facilities for Cross "S" Ranch, in the heart of Texas.

Any Man Can Farm Successfully Under Prof. Malley

At an enormous expense we have engaged the services of Professor Malley, a man who enjoys a high reputation and who was recently at the head of the State Agricultural department of Texas. Professor Malley is organizing associations for marketing the products of Cross "S" Ranch, in order that the producer may ship in carload lots and keep clear of the commission man and the middle man's profit. Professor Malley is at the beck and call of every Cross "S" Ranch farmer and his advice is extended to every Cross "S" Ranch purchaser as to the proper amount of water to use on his land, the crops to raise, etc.

Make Your Plans to Go With Us Now

We would strongly advise every farmer, business man, salaried employee or the man who works for wages to make arrangements NOW to make this trip with us on January 3rd, and get in before it is too late for later crops.

THIS PARTY PURCHASED 500 ACRES OF CROSS "S" RANCH LAND ON OUR LAST EXCURSION

Rock County or Southern Wisconsin farm nets $30 an acre, he has reached the maximum?

For $100 an acre you can buy a Cross "S" irrigated farm. This price includes water, furnished, which you own perpetually, without ever having to pay water rent from year to year as has to be done with most irrigated propositions.

It will cost you $10 an acre to clear this land of Mesquite and brush, and about $5 an acre to run your ditches and laterals and prepare your land for crop.

First Year's Products Pay For Land

I do not hesitate to state that a man properly farming and taking care of Cross "S" Ranch lands, can pay for his farm with the first year's products, but after all, "What's the use?" we won't sell an acre of Cross "S" Ranch land until the prospective buyer has made a personal visit.

Our office will be open Monday, January 2nd, until 4 o'clock P. M., to book reservations For the January 3rd trip. For all details regarding the trip, write, phone or call on
